Walker opposes tuition increase

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer
Gov. Daniel Walker, speaking to a crowd of about 150 persons, Gov. Walker said that, if the legislature passes a bill to increase college tuitions, "I'll colleges and universities. Speaking at the Knights of Columbus Hall here before a crowd of about 150 persons, Gov. Walker said that, if the legislature passes a bill to increase college tuitions, "I'll veto it." He said the legislature might attempt to override the veto but commented, "I think we'll win this one." The tuition increase recommendation has been suggested by the Illinois Board of Higher Education.

During his talk, and a question and answer period which followed, Gov. Walker opposed gun control; lobbied for stronger court sentences, including capital punishment; supported the "circuit breaker" law which gives tax breaks to senior citizens, and pledged his efforts toward passage of a proposed Constitutional amendment for "honesty in government."

He said he supports full disclosure of tax returns by all government officials in Illinois every year. "For five years, I have made that kind of disclosure," (Michael) Howlett (rival Democratic candidate for governor) has been in government 15 years and has not. It's still a secret," Walker said.

The governor said he supports the efforts of a group working to get an amendment on the ballot which would make three things illegal.

It would ban double public jobs, such as when a legislator holds a full-time state job; (Continued on Page 4)

MRF salutes Rendleman

The man "most responsible for building the Mississippi River Festival from an idea on paper to a cultural and financial success" was honored Thursday by the board of directors of Mississippi River Festival, Inc. President John S. Rendleman of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, who also is president of the MRF, was cited for his "dynamic leadership and spirit of enthusiasm in behalf of the Mississippi River Festival."

Presentation of a plaque honoring his achievements was made to Dr. Rendleman by Dr. Albert W. Tritan of Granite City, a member of the board of directors, who said, "The history of the Festival is known to all of us. We recognize that its success is mostly due to one individual's effort."

The recognition was given to Dr. Rendleman not only on behalf of the board of directors, Dr. Tritan said, but on behalf of "the more than one million people who have walked through the MRF turnstiles." In a letter to the board of directors, State Senator Sam Vadalabene of Edwardsville said, "Please add my warmest congratulations to one of the (Continued on Page 4)

Assessment wrangle may delay 1976 tax collection schedule

By HARRY BARNES

Press-Record Staff Writer
Unless Madison County assessing officials succeed in a readjustment upward of assessment ratios on rural property, taxpayers of the urban areas, including the Quad-Cities, will continue to pay twice as much in taxes for county purposes as are paid by the owners of farm lands, James Barton of Granite City, county superintendent of assessments, reported last week.

Assessment officials now are making revisions in rural property assessments in compliance with a new state law requiring assessments on a 33.33 per cent ratio for the county as a whole, but are confronted with mounting objections from rural landowners who, in recent years, have paid tax bills on assessment ratios as low as 17 per cent of fair cash value.

Barton explained that while rural property is being adjusted upward in the face of heavy opposition, there is little likelihood that the present assessment ratios of Granite City, Nameki, Venice and Chouteau township will decline immediately, although the present sales record ratios in all of those townships are well above the 33.33 per cent average ratio required by the state.

Taxpayers of the urban area townships will benefit, however, in the amount of taxes they pay under the county tax rate after higher assessments are applied against owners of farm properties. For example, Barton said, Granite City taxpayers paid their county tax under an assessment ratio that was established at 37.16 per cent for the 1973 tax year, the last year for which average ratio figures are available, while owners of rural property were paying taxes on the basis of a 17 per cent ratio. This means, Barton said, that for every expenditure by the county, Granite Cities and other urban area taxpayers paid two parts of the cost and rural property-taxpayers paid one part.

The same holds true in Nameki Township where the average sales ratio for the 1973 tax year was 37.9 per cent, and Chouteau Township where the ratio was 41.44 per cent of fair cash value.

Venue township taxpayers pay an even higher portion of county expenditures, as compared with rural taxpayers. The (Continued on Page 4)

Coffee in face foils would-be armed robber

A young would-be robber was foiled by a clerk who threw hot coffee in his face yesterday morning, but an elderly Madison couple was unable to halt two young armed robbers at the couple's home last night.

A woman clerk at W&W Confectionery, 4601 Maryville Road, said a young man entered at 10:20 a.m. Sunday, walked to the counter, displayed a large-caliber blue-steel revolver and said, "Give me the money."

The clerk, who had just poured a cup of hot coffee from a thermos, threw coffee in his face and the man fled while cursing at her.

Another young man was peering into the window during the robbery attempt and fled with the gunman.

The youth who entered the store was described as 23 to 25 years of age, six feet tall, medium build and weighing 165 pounds.

He had a ruddy complexion and light brown or blond stringy, dirty hair. He wore silver wire-rimmed sunglasses, and was wearing a dark green parka with a brown fur collar and light-colored trousers with flecks of white and beige on them.

The youth who remained outside was wearing a green stocking cap.

Madison County sheriff's deputies are attempting to identify a man who purchased a newspaper moments before the robbery, hoping that he may have seen the youths enter and could help to identify them. Deputies stopped two men in a car moments after the robbery attempt but they were released without charges after (Continued on Page 24)

RAYMOND BURTON JR.
Ainad Outer Guard

Burton Ainaid Shrine officer

Raymond Randolph Burton Jr. of Granite City is the newly appointed Outer Guard of Ainaid Temple, AAONNS, East St. Louis.

Following in the footsteps of his grandfather, Noel Spanagel, Burton assumes the office that will someday lead him to service as pontiff of Ainaid. His grandfather held that office in 1943.

Burton attended Westminster College in Fulton, Mo., and Southern Illinois University. After joining the banking profession, he attended the American Institute of Banking, and the Illinois Bankers Association School in Carbondale.

His Masonic work began in 1961 in Gothic Lodge 852, Belleville. He became a member of the Scottish Rite Bodies of Southern Illinois in April 1962, and joined Ainaid Temple in November that year. He served as president of the director's staff in 1968, and has performed as assistant parade marshal for all Ainaid Temple parades since 1972.

Howlett to help honor Rep. Wolf and Rep. Lucco

Michael J. Howlett, secretary of state and candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, will be the speaker at a dinner honoring State Representatives Sam W. Wolf (D-Granite City) and Joe Lucco (D-Edwardsville) on Sunday, Feb. 8. Both are running for reelection.

"We look forward to an enjoyable evening, and an inspiring address from Mike Howlett," he added. Howlett is the only Democrat (Continued on Page 4)

Area remembers Gov. Stevenson

(Eighth of Bicentennial year Press-Record series)
Governor Adlai Stevenson is well remembered in the Quad-Cities, both as the 1948-52 Illinois governor and as an active Presidential campaigner who made local public appearances, including a talk during a motorcade at Memorial Park in Granite City. A surprise state police raid on his orders embarrassed some of his fellow Democratic officials here in 1950 when major gambling enterprises were caught in operation at the Hyde Park Club, Venice, and 200

Club, Madison. His son is currently one of this state's two United States senators.

A profile of the late Gov. Stevenson, under the heading of "An aristocrat as governor," follows. It was prepared by the staff of Sangamon State University.

Adlai Stevenson's obituary filled a full page in the New York Times beneath an eight-column title labeling him "An Urbane, Witty, Articulate Politician, and Diplomat."

Stevenson once explained to an aspiring biographer: "I wasn't born in a log cabin. 'I didn't work my way through school nor did I rise from rags to riches, and there's no use trying to pretend I did.' I am not a Willie, and I don't claim to be a simple, barefoot 'LaSalle Street lawyer.'"

Food stamps in Venice Feb. 2

Residents of the Venice area will be able to purchase food stamps at the Venice Post Office, 416 Broadway, beginning Monday, Feb. 2, it was announced at the Venice City Council meeting last week.

The exact methods and times the stamps will be available have not been decided. Civil cording to a post office spokesman. Two employees of the Venice post office are currently being trained in the regulations and proper ways of handling the stamps.

"This will be a fine addition to our city," Mayor William "Mike" Ebersold said. "The new service by the post office will make it a lot easier for many of our people."
 The council passed an ordinance creating the City of Venice Emergency Services and Disaster Agency (ESDA), which replaces the former Civil Defense organization. The new name and regulations are established in the Illinois Emergency Services and Disaster Act of 1975.

Mayor Ebersold said that he intends to appoint, with council approval, William Honorable who has been serving as Civil Defense director, as coordinator of the new ESDA since it is essentially the same organization.

Mayor Ebersold reported that a hearing on a proposed increase in water rates will be held in Springfield on March 17 at 10 a.m. in the Illinois Commerce Commission offices.

The annual audit of the McKinley Toll Bridge financial statements through Sept. 30, 1975 was accepted and placed on file. The audit was made by Bert H. Allison and Co., certified public accountants, and read in part: "the balance sheet and income statements present fairly the financial position of the McKinley Toll Bridge."

38th annual Ball Saturday at Venice

The Noblemen of Alnad Shrine Temple will play music for dancing at the 38th annual Venice Crippled Children's Ball, scheduled from 9 p.m. Saturday to 1 a.m. Sunday at the Venice-Madison American Legion Home, 740 Broadway, Venice.

Donations of $1.50 per person may be paid at the door. The public is invited to attend. Proceeds from the ball will be contributed to the Shrine's Hospital for Crippled Children and the Shrine's Burns Center.

Prior to the dance, two related events will take place, according to Venice Mayor William "Mike" Ebersold, president of the Venice Crippled Children's Organization (VCCO), sponsors of the traditional ball.

Earlier Saturday, a roadblock will be set up at Broadway and Klein Street, Venice, to solicit funds from passing motorists, and read in part: "the balance sheet and income statements present fairly the financial position of the McKinley Toll Bridge."

In addition to the dancing, ball patrons may obtain food and other refreshments, the chairman announced.

Also highlighting the evening will be a performance by the Eaglelarks Kitchen Band and presentation of a check to the Shrine's representatives.

The ball's Bicentennial decor will include miniature wooden figurines which will be auctioned during the program. Jerry Schodrofski is in charge of the decorations.

Other committee chairmen responsible for arranging the event, include:

Jack Tolliver, tickets; Valeta Bauder and Ruth Ottendorf, publicity; Evelyn Tolliver, cake walk; Jack Lee and Tom Fields, refreshments; Fred Durer Jr.

Alvin Moore sentenced to 25 to 50 years in prison

Alvin Wayne Moore, 39, Bridgeton, Mo., was sentenced last week in Madison County Circuit Court to serve 25 to 50 years in prison for armed robbery and an additional one to three years for violating the terms of his bail bond.

Moore was found guilty in December by a jury of robbing the former Maryland Bi-File Super Market, 2205 Pontoon Road, May 22, 1970.

The trial had to be delayed several times when Moore disappeared. He had been held under $100,000 bond since being found guilty.

The sentence was pronounced by Circuit Judge Moses Harrison II.

Judge Harrison also accepted guilty pleas to kidnapping and attempted rape from Clarence Garrison, 30, a Scott Air Force Base Technical Sergeant.

Taylor allegedly used a gun to force three girls into his car May 3, 1975, near Johnson Road and Carlson Avenue and drove two of them to Terminal Avenue by the railroad tracks where he admits attempting to rape one.

Judge Harrison set Garrison's sentencing for March 5.

Wayne D. Taylor, 28, of the 3100 block of Kirkpatrick Homes, pleaded guilty this week to a charge of voluntary manslaughter and is to be sentenced by Judge Harrison Feb. 15.

He was charged with stabbing Albert L. Wells Jr., 34, of 2801 Marshall Ave., Nov. 7, 1975 and it was alleged Taylor threw Wells' body from a van in the 4200 block of Division Street, Pontoon Beach.

Taylor was arrested in a van near Trenton about two hours later.

Richard McCurt, 23, of the 600 block of Bend Road, has been sentenced to serve five years of probation after he pleaded guilty to attempted robbery. He allegedly attempted to rob a Kozasa service station July 23.

He and two co-defendants were arrested after their auto went out of control at Route 111 and Hartford-South Roxana Road and ran into a ditch.

Judge Harrison also pronounced that sentence.

Terry Smith, 24, also of the 600 block of Bend Road, is yet to be sentenced on an armed robbery charge in connection with that case.

1975 record year at American National

Henry D. Karandjeff, chairman of American National Bank of Granite City, indicated that the bank had the largest growth in its history for the year ending 1975, at the bank's annual stockholder's meeting held last week.

In his statement to the stockholders, Karandjeff said, "With a growth in assets of approximately $2,000,000, American National realized a 42.26 per cent increase over the previous year. This exceptional growth can be attributed to a number of factors."

In our expanding economic community a large number of residents became new customers to the bank. In addition, many of our existing customers availed themselves of more services that the bank has to offer.

An extension of our existing services also contributed to the bank's growth. There was an addition of 500 safe deposit boxes. Enlarged parking facilities have made lobby banking more convenient. A monthly statement profile gave our customers information regarding the current status of their checking, savings and installment loan accounts.

Directors of the bank re-elected were Henry D. Karandjeff, Ernest A. Karandjeff, and F. Eugene, Dr. A. D. Karandjeff, William M. Kozayak, Robert A. Maddox, Ernest R. Bickhaus and Kiro Vautseff.

Officers of the bank re-elected were Henry D. Karandjeff, chairman; Ernest A. Karandjeff, president; Donald Vanlori, executive vice president; David Giese, vice president and cashier; Charles Baricovic, vice president; Leo Roth, assistant vice president;

Mrs. Helen Mangoff, assistant cashier, and Mrs. Darlene Palovchik, assistant cashier. Karandjeff went on to say, "The large growth of American National Bank during the past several years is an indicator to us of the fine economic growth of the Quad-Cities. National Bank of Granite City and economic improvements for our nation during 1976. We feel confident that our community will share in this improvement."

New rule on mail order buying effective Feb. 2

Help is on the way for frustrated consumers who have suffered long delays in getting their mail order purchases.

Those who have a complaint about a mail order transaction, or who would like more information about the new FTC rule, may either write or call Cella Maloney, Governor's Consumer Advocate, 180 N. LaSalle, Room 2010, Chicago 60601, (312) 793-2754.

The new FTC rule only covers merchandise and does not cover "services connected with merchandise," such as mail order photo finishing.

Also excluded from coverage are:

1. Magazines and other serial deliveries, except for the initial shipment.
2. Seeds and growing plants.
3. Orders made on a collection-delivery (COD) basis.

Those who have a complaint about a mail order transaction, or who would like more information about the new FTC rule, may either write or call Cella Maloney, Governor's Consumer Advocate, 180 N. LaSalle, Room 2010, Chicago 60601, (312) 793-2754.

To help the consumer who wishes to cancel to do so, the mail order firm must give him an adequate cost-free means to cancel, such as a postage-paid card. If the consumer requests that his order be cancelled, the mail order firm must do so and refund the money.

If a consumer doesn't respond to the seller's notice of delayed delivery and option to cancel, this will be taken as consent to a 30-day delay. However, the consumer must expressly consent to any delays beyond extra 30 days.

Other key provisions in the rule:

Require that sellers of mail order merchandise have a reasonable basis for claims they make about shipping time.

Allow sellers one billing cycle to adjust a charge to a credit account, and seven days to provide a refund where the buyer has made payment by cash, check or money order.

Assessment

Venue township assessment ratio for 1975 was 49.49 per cent of fair cash value, Barton said.

Barton said that the county's overall average ratio presently is 27.4 per cent, even after higher urban ratios are averaged out with lower rural ratios. It is this figure that must be raised to the required 33.33 per cent average for the county as a whole.

If the county failed to establish the 33.33 per cent average for the county as a whole, the Illinois Department of Revenue arbitrarily could order a multiplier—a figure by which the county clerk's office would multiply all assessments in the county, Barton said. Such action would increase all assessments in all townships, including those already having high assessment ratios.

Action by the assessing office to increase rural property assessments may result in late tax collections this year, forcing Quad-City area taxing districts to borrow funds to meet 1976 operating obligations.

Farmers protesting the higher valuations are squaring off for a serious fight against higher assessments that is expected to involve court action all the way to the Supreme Court.

Fifty-five property owners in Alhambra Township, most of them farmers, have filed a class action suit in Circuit Court at Edwardsville to challenge terms of the state's new assessing law and the right of state and county assessing officials to reassess property unilaterally if it does not meet certain minimums.

No hearing date has been set, but the suit, when it is decided in circuit court, is expected to be carried to higher courts regardless of whether the county or the property owners are victorious.

Barton said that an additional difficulty growing out of objections to valuation revisions in the rural areas is the vast number of assessment protests now being filed with the Board of Review by rural property owners.

"We are receiving up to 50 such protests a day which is building up such a backlog of hearings that it is impossible to predict when the review board will ever get through," Barton said.

Because of the mounting number of protests, the Madison County Board last week granted the Board of Review an extension of time in which to conduct hearings. The hearings must be held before 1975 property books can be completed and turned over to the county clerk for the extension of tax rates.

After rates are extended, the tax books are turned over to the treasurer and town collectors who still handle township tax collections, and bills are mailed, usually about mid-May or early June.

The county's tax schedule initially was set back last year by a new computerization program that delayed Barton's presentation of the new assessment books to the township assessors until June 1975, instead of early in the year.

Township assessors in the rural counties then were reluctant to change assessments so that when Barton received their books his office was required to make extensive changes and, in several instances, returned the books to the assessors to start over.

the boundaries of the state of Illinois.

Born in 1905, he was the grandson of a vice-president of the United States with the same name.

After graduating from Princeton, he became a lawyer and for a time editor-publisher of the family-owned Bloomington Daily Pantagraph.

In 1941 he was selected as special assistant to Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox, and for the following seven years was deeply and variously involved in diplomacy and world government.

His governorship provided a local interlude in a national and an international career.

Perfected to become a candidate for governor in 1948 by Democratic Boss Col. Jacob Arvey, Stevenson surprisingly won the largest majority ever given a gubernatorial victor to that time.

In spite of his relative lack of experience with the mercurial complexities of Illinois politics, his accomplishments as governor were impressive.

He sent state policemen crusading against commercial gambling downstate when local officials failed to act.

And, much to the chagrin of the regular Democrats, he established a merit system in the state police force, ending the custom of political appointments.

He increased state aid to school districts, placed the state's welfare program on a merit basis, and converted the formerly political State Commerce Commission, which fixed utility rates into a non-partisan body.

Defeated in a move to call a constitutional convention, he did manage the adoption of a gateway amendment for changing the outdated constitution.

Stevenson began modernization of the state government through a series of reform measures, and in the process lured 1,300 nonworking politicians from the payroll.

During his governorship, he articulated a great faith in and a reasoned support of democracy as a governing process and as a way of life.

He believed that government should be "as small in the county clerk for the extension of tax rates.

After rates are extended, the tax books are turned over to the treasurer and town collectors who still handle township tax collections, and bills are mailed, usually about mid-May or early June.

The county's tax schedule initially was set back last year by a new computerization program that delayed Barton's presentation of the new assessment books to the township assessors until June 1975, instead of early in the year.

Township assessors in the rural counties then were reluctant to change assessments so that when Barton received their books his office was required to make extensive changes and, in several instances, returned the books to the assessors to start over.

Thus a combination of factors—the law suit, the large number of assessment appeals and delay encountered earlier—almost certainly will result in a delay in the mailing of tax bills this year.

scope and as local in character as possible, and felt that it grew strong in debate—even dissidence and disagreement.

His veto of the Broyles Bill regarding loyalty oaths of teachers and state officials—legislation inspired by the Cold War—supported by the Illinois State Bar Association, and designed to protect against "subversive activities"—was an act of courage in the climate of the times.

In his veto message, Stevenson maintained that "to question, even by implication, the loyalty and devotion of a large group of citizens is to create an atmosphere of suspicion and distrust which is neither justified, healthy, nor consistent with our traditions."

Perfected to become a candidate for governor in 1948 by Democratic Boss Col. Jacob Arvey, Stevenson surprisingly won the largest majority ever given a gubernatorial victor to that time.

In spite of his relative lack of experience with the mercurial complexities of Illinois politics, his accomplishments as governor were impressive.

He sent state policemen crusading against commercial gambling downstate when local officials failed to act.

And, much to the chagrin of the regular Democrats, he established a merit system in the state police force, ending the custom of political appointments.

He increased state aid to school districts, placed the state's welfare program on a merit basis, and converted the formerly political State Commerce Commission, which fixed utility rates into a non-partisan body.

Defeated in a move to call a constitutional convention, he did manage the adoption of a gateway amendment for changing the outdated constitution.

Stevenson began modernization of the state government through a series of reform measures, and in the process lured 1,300 nonworking politicians from the payroll.

During his governorship, he articulated a great faith in and a reasoned support of democracy as a governing process and as a way of life.

He believed that government should be "as small in the county clerk for the extension of tax rates.

very best friends this area has ever had."

"The Mississippi River Festival has always been more than a festival," Dr. Rendleman said. "It's a celebration of the Mississippi River as an entertainment medium, he saw it as an educational agent and communication opportunity for residents of both states, Davis said."

Dr. Rendleman felt the university had not felt it people living in this part of the state to upgrade their social, cultural and economic situations. This would be accomplished through many kinds of educational experiences, and the festival would provide learning experience, the MRF board was told.

Not only that, Dr. Rendleman said, the festival did not feel it imperative that the MRF make money; it was more important, in his view, that disadvantaged members of the community have access to cultural experiences.

"You can't measure the artistic benefits of the festival in dollars and cents," Dr. Rendleman said.

Kevin Beck, 18, dies here

Kevin R. Beck, 18, of 1934 Rhodes St., Madison, a lifelong resident of the Quad-Cities, died at 9:48 p.m. Sunday at St. Elizabeth Hospital, where he had been admitted six hours earlier.

Donald Bright dies at 69

Donald Bright, 69, of Modesto, Calif., formerly of Granite City, died on Sunday, Jan. 18, at a hospital in Modesto.

He was born in Hocking County, Ohio, and resided here about 35 years prior to moving to California six years ago.

Mr. Bright was a retired employee of the Granite City Army Installation. He was a past master of Masonic Lodge 825.

Active in Boy Scouting, Mr. Bright served six years as Scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 10, and five years as advisor to Explorer Post 10, both sponsored by the Nidderhagen United Methodist Church.

He received the District Award of Merit, formerly known as the Scout "Oscar" in 1959; Scouters' Training Award in 1963, and the Scouters' Key in 1965. He was awarded the Silver Beaver, highest award that can be given a scout leader by a local council, in 1961.

Mr. Bright also held the Vigil Honor of the Order of the Arrow, scouting's national honor camping society.

His wife, Eileen Bright, preceded him in death.

Survivors include one son, Donald Bright Jr. of Ottawa, Ontario; one brother, Charles E. Bright, and two sisters, Mrs. Rose Bogges and Mrs. Josephine Tussing, all of Columbus, Ohio; and two grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Mercer Mortuary, 1416 Nidderhagen Ave. At 876-4321 for information.

The Way It Was

Jan. 26—The British became concerned that American vessels are stationing themselves along the African coasts to take on powder from ships bound for Europe.

Jan. 27—The Continental Congress decides to import 40,000 round shot to train troops to maintain the friendship and trust of the Indians through the strife.

Jan. 28—Sailors complain that "potatoes are so small and so bad that they are only fit for children to play jack stones with" and request improved food rations.

PISTOL IS STOLEN
A .410 pistol was stolen from the locked car of James Thornberry, 1322 Pontoon Road, parked in an open garage at the rear of his home. It was reported Thursday. A coat hanger was believed used to unlock the car. The gun is a 38 round detective special, he said.

RECOVER STOLEN CAR
A 1968 Plymouth stolen from Brenda Overturn, 2119 Bryan Ave., was recovered in Frankwood, Mo., and a person arrested there after the vehicle was reported stolen at 1:55 a.m. Wednesday.

Mississippi River Festival and his determination to keep it going in spite of overwhelming opposition began to spread, the board was told.

"The MRF became the 'in' thing to do and the 'in' place to go. Automobiles lined up bumper-to-bumper on highways here and crossing the river into Illinois.

People from all levels of society lugged lawn chairs to the campus and carried picnic lunches to enjoy the sound of music under a canopy of stars.

"What a satisfying sight that must have been to the man who has worked hard to make it happen," one board member remarked. He added:

"The cultural bridge that Dr. Rendleman had envisioned is now in place and being used by the residents along both banks of the river. His commitment of bringing great music and great performing artists within the easy reach of everyone in the region is being fulfilled—a great tribute to the determination of one man."

Obituaries

BECK, KEVIN R., 1934 Rhodes St., Madison. Entered into rest 9:48 p.m., Sunday, Jan. 25, 1976, at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Beloved husband of Mrs. Pat Beck; dear son of Mrs. Esther Beck; dear brother of Timothy, Kendall, Jason and Thomas Beck; one sister, Mrs. Gerald (Paw) Swiatek, all of Granite City.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Sewer backups pose problems in Pontoon

Sanitary sewers serving the Quiet Valley portion of Pontoon Beach have been backing up into homes, causing the village board to seek immediate help in cleaning the sewers.

A recessed meeting of the board has been called for 5 p.m. today to try and award a contract for the sewer cleaning work.

During Friday night's regular board meeting, trustees were told there have been several complaints from Quiet Valley residents that the sewers are backing up into homes.

A price from H & H Sewer Co. was presented for the work, but was rejected by the board as being above their estimates. Due to the urgency of the situation, the board decided not to advertise for bids, but to contact several firms and seek prices.

The prices will be considered at tonight's recessed meeting.

George Voght dies at 75

George Voght, 75, of Collinsville, formerly of Granite City, died at 1 a.m. today at the Peace Haven Nursing Home, St. Louis.

Mr. Voght was employed 30 years at Granite City Steel until his retirement 10 years ago.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Betty Voght; one son, James Voght of Collinsville; a daughter, Mrs. Alice Fortag of Indiana, and one grandchild.

Funeral arrangements are pending at an Edwardsville funeral home.

Some Day...
Own Your Own Home.

GO AHEAD, DREAM about that new house you and your family will have some day, about all the ways you'll make it your own. Clip out house plan sketches and put them in your "someday" file, and visit model homes every now and then to keep your dreams alive.

But don't just dream. Begin now to lay the groundwork that's needed for a home of your own. Come in and talk it over with us, and we'll show you how you can make these dreams come true—by setting up a savings program to get you started, by explaining the process of buying or building a house, and by being helpful in any way we can. You see, we believe in helping people, and if we can help you get started along the road to home ownership, we'll welcome the opportunity.

Timing of 'broken promise' trapped schools into fund dilemma—Howlett

To make possible full funding of state aid to the common schools, Illinois government must have more prudent management, gubernatorial candidate Michael J. Howlett said Friday in Champaign. Addressing Illinois Principals Association Region IV, he said he supports full funding of the resource equalizer formula.

To have money available for education, the state government must live within its means, like any business or household, he said.

"According to George Lindberg, state comptroller, during the first six months of this fiscal year, we have spent $303 million more from the General Fund than we took in," Secretary of State Howlett said.

"The balance in the general fund at the close of books Dec. 30 was only $12 million, less than half the average daily demand on the general fund."

"Irresponsible budgeting and the highest spending in Illinois history led us into our school funding crisis."

"Gov. Walker promised full funding for this year, and then switched to a cutback. His broken promise forced school boards all over Illinois to break their own commitments."

"The 1970 Constitution clearly fixes on the state the primary responsibility for financing the system of public education."

"When I am governor, we will meet that responsibility."

"We will support the resource equalizer formula which the legislature voted into law in 1973."

"We will meet fully the obligation of state government to our children."

"Confidence in government is lower today than ever before during my 15 years as a state official," Howlett asserted.

"We can restore that confidence only if leaders of government promise only what can be done and fully carry out the promises they make."

"That is the principle I have followed and will continue to follow as governor."

"When the legislature rewrote the school aid formula to increase state funding of public schools, it contained a schedule for spreading the increased cost over four years."

"Since then, the legislature has consistently voted to meet the obligations of this law by 'full funding' of it."

"In 1974, Gov. Walker said we had a fiscal crisis. He called for the full funding formula to be cut $78 million for fiscal 1975."

"The claim of fiscal crisis proved to be phony. In March 1975, the governor reversed himself and called for full funding for fiscal 1976."

"On June 12, 1975, the governor switched again and called for a cutback of $120 million."

"During these three months, school boards all over Illinois made responsible plans and locked themselves into binding contracts."

"They banked on the expectation that state government would live up to the promise of full funding," Howlett said.

"The governor's cutback in the primary source of state aid to the public schools was despite the fact that his own budget called for an overall increase of $2 billion 400 million — much greater than the original education increase."

"The legislature again approved full funding, but the governor cut out $81 million from the resource equalizer formula along with $64 million from other school programs."

"Attempts by the legislature to restore these funds over his veto failed in the Senate after passing the House."

"We have a constitutional, legal and moral commitment to provide these funds as early as possible."

"Illinois state government can make these funds available if we control and contain state spending in non-essential areas."

Volunteers meet in Madison

A series of brief orientation meetings will be held Wednesday and Thursday at Harris and Blair schools in Madison, explaining the "Volunteers in Public Schools" program beginning in the Madison elementary schools.

Meetings will be held at 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. at Harris School Wednesday and at Blair on Thursday. The purpose of these meetings is to provide information to prospective volunteers about VIPs. There is no obligation for those attending to become involved.

"Just come and find out how you can be of service to the schools and children," Mrs. Barbara Madison, volunteer coordinator, said.

Anyone having questions about the program is being urged to attend one of the orientation meetings. Information is available from Mrs. Madison at 431-6222 or Donna Woodward, the community coordinator, at 976-6798. Questions also may be answered at the Teachers Corps Office in Harris School at 877-6869.

Senator backs grant request

To adequately serve the district encompassing the northeast segment of the metropolitan area, we need the best possible transportation system we can develop," State Sen. Sam M. Vadalabene (Dem.-Edwardsville) said in a statement filed for use at a hearing at East St. Louis Senior High School Thursday night.

Vadalabene is expressing his support for an application by the Bi-State Development Agency to the U. S. Transportation Department's Urban Mass Transportation Administration and the Illinois Transportation Department's Division of Public Transportation totaling $21,102,680 for capital improvements.

"This represents a drastically needed infusion of capital support to the entire system," Vadalabene said in the statement. "The citizens I represent have a dire need for a broadly based, efficient system of mass transportation."

"We have considerable industrial and manufacturing resources dependent on mass transportation to bring them workers. Our commercial centers need buses to bring customers to their doors. There is a vast labor force that can utilize mass transit to find employment and get to it regularly."

John Papes, 1231 Grand Ave., Madison, reported last week that thieves broke a south basement window of his home and stole an AM-FM radio and eight track tape player worth $150, a television worth $150, and a calculator valued at $100.

State wants servicemen to submit returns

Servicemen and women on active duty with the U. S. armed forces are not required to pay Illinois income taxes on their military pay, but State Revenue Director Robert H. Alphin says they should file an Illinois income tax return if they claim Illinois as their legal residence.

Alphin heads the Illinois Department of Revenue, which administers the state's income tax law.

"Even though active duty pay is exempt from the Illinois income tax, servicemen and women who file Illinois their legal residence must file an Illinois income tax return," the director said.

"The return and accompanying W-2 will verify that this is active duty pay, which is not subject to taxation."

Alphin said other income earned by Illinois residents on active duty may be subject to the income tax and should be declared on the return.

In addition to regular active duty pay, some other military pay is exempt from the state income tax, including pay earned by:

- National Guardsmen and National Guardsmen on full-time duty.
- Reservists and National Guardsmen during annual summer training camp.
- National Guardsmen in federal service during civil disturbances or national emergency.

Reserve and Guard pay for time spent at weekly or monthly training sessions is not exempt from the state income tax.

Faster dividends to GI-insured veterans

Illinois veterans who kept their insurance policies in force following discharge will be $19,700,000 richer by the latter part of February as a result of the Veterans Administration's decision to pay insurance dividends on an accelerated basis.

Richard L. Roudsbush, VA administrator, says the largest amount will go to World War II veterans who have retained their National Service Life Insurance in force.

In Illinois, 196,289 World War II veterans will receive $18,659,588, for an average of about $92 each.

World War I veterans in Illinois will receive $1,053,000 which will be distributed to 5,399 veterans. The average payment will be $195.

Korean veterans will receive $702,000. Their average dividend will be $19 as 37,881 have retained their policies.

Roudsbush said that nationally the dividend will be a record $276.8 million, or $41.2 million more than last year.

The administrator pointed out some veterans will receive more and others less than the average, depending on their insurance plan, amount of income, age at issue or renewal and the duration the policy has been in force.

Amounts to any veteran receiving dividends may vary from slightly over a dollar to as much as several hundred dollars.

The dividend is paid automatically and veterans do not need to apply in order to receive their money.

Red Pepper activities to boost South teams

The Red Peppers of Granite City High School South are sponsoring "Warriors Wam-pum Week" at the school today through Friday.

The activity is designed to promote school spirit and encourage the student body to "root" the school's athletic teams to victory, Red Pepper officers said.

Red and black, the school colors, will decorate the halls Tuesday, and South students are being urged to wear red and black clothing.

The booster program started today with a pep rally honoring the girls' varsity volleyball team.

In an exhibition session this morning, team members demonstrated the sport and Coach Wilma Shultz explained techniques of the power game.

Wednesday evening the Red Peppers and Letterman's Club will sponsor "Activity Night" from 7 to 9 o'clock. Games will be played in the gymnasium and annex, and refreshments will be served.

At 5:30 p.m. Thursday, a pep rally will be staged on the school's front campus area for the Warrior basketball team, which will compete against North High School Steelers that evening.

Another "all-school" pep rally will take place at 7:45 a.m. Friday, honoring the Warrior matmen who will meet the Steelers wrestlers in a dual contest at North High, starting at 6 p.m. Friday.

Vicki L. Kelley becomes Mrs. Charles D. Pulley

The wedding of Miss Vicki L. Kelley, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Kelley, 2912 Buxton Ave., and Charles David Pulley, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pulley, 2023 Sherman Ave., was solemnized Dec. 20 at St. John United Church of Christ.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony at 2 o'clock in the afternoon was the Rev. Dr. Paul Surbey.

Nuptial selections "We've Only Just Begun," "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer" were played by organist Mrs. Irene Barrick.

For her wedding, the former Miss Kelley chose a bridal gown featuring a high neckline of lace, a sheer yoke traced with lace motifs and long sheer sleeves, cuffed in lace. The semi-full skirt fell gracefully into a chapel train.

She wore a lace headpiece to secure her cathedral-length veil, edged in Chantilly lace, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations tipped in orchid.

Attendants Jerri Baulgus, Gina Painter, Gina Blasson, Diane Ackman, Pat Pulley and Linda Levort were identical dresses in orchid crepe.

Their frocks were designed with fitted bodices and softly flowing skirts and complemented with long sleeve jackets.

Each held a nosegay of white carnations with touches of orchid, festooned with matching bows.

Tracy and Skipper Cline served as flower and ringbearer.

The groom chose Dennis Boyce as his best man. Richard, Robert and David Clark, Jeff Briggs, Scott Barker, Earl Lovejoy and Carl Canyon completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

Mrs. Kelley, mother of the bride, selected a long pastel blue gown and the groom's mother, Mrs. Pulley, was attired in a formal-length dress in light beige. Both wore white carnation corsages.

After the ceremony, guests attended a reception at the Long Lake Firemen's Hall. Pat Kelley presided over the guest book. The rehearsal dinner was hosted by Carol Pulley.

Both young people attended Granite City High School South.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Kelley and son, Danny.

Trojan basketball team to ples hosts, win Dupo championship

Madison's Trojan basketball team won its sixth straight title Saturday and how has a 14-2 season record after rolling through the Dupo cage tournament, including a 76-53 victory Saturday over the hosts in the title game. Belleville's St. Henry Prep, a first-round 68-53 loser to Madison, downed Orchard Farms, Mo., 31-29 Thursday to advance against Wood River for consolation honors. Wood River beat Columbia Friday 54-40 and edged St. Henry by one point, 46-47, Saturday for the consolation title.

Following Madison's 62-57 semifinal contest win Thursday over Bethalto, Dupo posted a 71-66 victory Friday over East St. Louis Assumption.

In defeating Dupo for the tournament championship, Madison led 9-6, 31-25 and 40-39 at the quarters.

The Eagles put 27 points on the scoreboard in a big final period, tallying on eight field goals and 11 of 13 charity tosses.

Joe Gulash scored for 10 of Madison's fourth period points.

Randall Jones along with Curtis Bradley was later named to the all-tournament first team, and Jones was chosen as the tournament's most valuable player. He collected eight points in the decisive final quarter.

Madison had a slim margin at the free throw line, 16-15, but a 30-19 advantage from the floor.

Madison gave Dupo few opportunities to score, controlling the rebounding 44-24.

Dupo's Bill Moody collected 15 points for the runner-up.

Five Trojans scored in double figures—Randall Jones 16, Joe Gulash 14, Bradley 13, Ron Williams 10 and Anthony Canada 10.

Edwin Garrett had seven points, Clayton Harris three, Keith King two and DeFord Cochrell, one.

In a hard-fought win over Bethalto Thursday, MHS led 12-12 and 35-31 but Bethalto caught up and then led 46-43 after the third period.

Nine straight rebounds by Jones and Rodney Davis helped Madison cut the Eagles' lead to two points, and Bradley's shot made it 40-39 left.

Jones got a go-ahead goal. After the teams traded baskets, a free throw made it 58-55. Keith King stole a pass and threw the ball the length of the court to Joe Gulash for a two-pointer that made it 60-55 with 1:02 showing on the clock.

Bethalto countered but with 12 seconds left Davis hit two free throws. An Eagle jump shot missed and Jones pulled down his 14th rebound before time ran out.

Madison hit a stalling 27 of 45 to Bethalto's almost-as-hot 24 of 42. The Eagles had a 9-8 free throw edge and each time had 16 turnovers.* MHS committed the most fouls, 13-11, and recovered the most rebounds, 21-24. Randall Jones capturing 14.

Bradley scored 18 points, Jones 12, Garrett 11, Gulash and Williams six each, Davis five and King and Harris, two each.

North captures consolation title in tourney at Belleville

The year was 1974. Murphysboro swept through all foes to capture the annual Belleville East cage tourney. Apd GCHS North, a "rookie" ball club under Coach Bill Ohlendorf, suffered a first-round loss and then won two in a row to capture consolation honors.

The North High Steelers repeated that feat this year, losing 60-55 to Cahokia last Tuesday and then winning two straight, 69-53 Thursday over Triad and 79-46 over Belleville Althoff Saturday afternoon at Belleville.

The host East Lancers downed defending tournament champion Belleville West 68-46 for the tourney title.

Cahokia upended Murphysboro 69-60 for third-place honors. Althoff, an 83-77 victim of Murphysboro in a first-round contest last Wednesday, returned Friday to edge O'Fallon 59-56.

East and West clashed in the championship game after both defeated their first-round foes. West downed Cahokia Thursday and East outpointed Murphysboro.

With consolation honors at stake Saturday, GCHS North opened against the Althoff Crusaders by racing to a 2-5 lead with 2:30 left in the first quarter. The Steelers led 28-11 at the conclusion of that period and 42-27 at halftime.

The overwhelming lead enabled Coach Ohlendorf to give two starters a rest—Rick Spurlock and Rodney Wortham. Together, the duo chalked up 13 of North's first quarter points—Spurlock six and Wortham seven. Tom Schocker had 13 and Brian Smith two in the same period.

Althoff pulled to within 56-49 by the end of the third period, but three straight baskets by Spurlock in the opening two minutes of the final quarter extended North's margin to 62-49.

North controlled the boards

51-31, Schocker getting 17 and Spurlock 13.

The Steelers garnered three more field goals than Althoff, 28-25, and led 23-16 at the foul line.

Fouls were numerous, Althoff committing 27 and North 21. The Steelers yielded possession on 19 turnovers to Althoff's 17.

North pointmakers were Schocker with 25, Spurlock 20, Wortham 17, Larry Schleicher 3, Jerry Barnett five, Tim Luehmann four and Smith two.

South wins triangular

GCHS South had little difficulty in handing Roxana a 43-10 loss Saturday in a triangle wrestling meet at Missouri's

High. But the Warriors had a tougher time with the host school before deciding the outcome with a pin in the last bout for a 2-19 South High victory.

Roxana took the lead with a 3-2 win over Wally DeShon (98 pounds) but the Warriors went ahead as Mike Forshee (105) won by forfeit.

Sam Perkins (112) won 13-3, Ray Fedora (126) lost 6-0, Dave Gaines (132) won 7-6, Darrell Hasty (138) won 9-0, Ed Pether (145) won 11-0, Steve Avedisian (155) won 12-0, Jerry Patterson (167) won on a pin in 5:10, Kevin Wilson (185) won in 4:49 and Heavyweight Mark Hartman won in 4:37.

Against Hazelwood, South opened with three straight wins—DeShon 4-2, Forshee 10-5 and Perkins 16-8—but Hazelwood went ahead on team points by winning four of the next five bouts.

Al Schuler (119) lost 18-3, Fedora lost 9-0, Gaines lost 2-1, Hasty won 11-2 and Pether lost 11-3.

JA center a beehive of activity

Press-Record staff photos on the opposite page give an idea of the busy activity occurring several nights each week at the Junior Achievement business center.

Kenneth Gattung, a GCHS South science teacher, coordinates the local JA program with the help of over 30 adult volunteer advisors.

Each JA business has between 15 and 20 teenage members who form the company in the fall and perform all phases of work before liquidating it in the spring.

Gaining enjoyment as well as a first-hand view of the business world, the students carry out tasks in accounting, production, management, sales and record keeping.

SECOND ON LEFT — EXAMINING THE BOOKS of the Liberty Bell Co., sponsored by Illinois Power Co., Lorie Clement, seated, the belt company treasurer, is in the capital situation to Ed Brandes, president of the company.

THIRD ON LEFT — SMOOTHED ON A SANDER, the digital thermometer has a high gloss finish and a high degree of accuracy. It is manufactured by the JA Digit Temp Co. Vincent McCrory, operating the sander, is intent on making a quality product. Blenda Watts, center, and Mary Hagauer check attendance for the payroll. The JA company is sponsored by American Steel Foundries.

THIRD ON RIGHT — PRODUCTION OF DOGGIE NIGHT LIGHTS is undertaken once a week at the Junior Achievement Business Center, 3307 Walnut Ave., by members of the Woofco Co., sponsored by Granite City Steel. The night lights, in the shape of a dog, sell for $4.00 and the company hopes to reach $12,000 in sales. Achievers on the left are Patty Sardgal and Tina Keith. Sandra and the Tina Keith are Donna Burke near the wall, the company secretary, Gary Davis, who is vice-president for manufacturing, and Renee Hylla, at the far right.

LOWER RIGHT — BURGALAR AND FIRE ALARMS are made and sold by The Protectors Co., sponsored by Granite City Steel. The fire alarms are heat-activated and sell for $10; the burglar alarms sell for $7. Hoping to gross over $1,000, workers from the left are Cindy Graner, Lorie Gattung, standing, who is vice-president for manufacturing, and Christine Coleman and Becky Martin.

Big third quarter as cage Steelers romp past Triad

The GCHS North Steelers, after a 60-36 first-round loss to Cahokia last week, bounced back to trounce Triad (St. Jacob-Troy-Marine) 69-55 Thursday night in consolation competition at Belleville East.

The win advanced North to the contest for consolation honors in the basketball tournament.

North and Triad both displayed shooting skill in the first quarter.

After a 13-13 tie in the first period, Triad edged into a one-point lead, 21-20, at halftime.

North High cagers appeared to enter second-half competition inspired by Coach Bill Ohlen-dorf's halftime locker room comments. Tom Schocker, hitting on four of six basket attempts and Larry Schleicher on three of four to pace the Steelers to a 48-45 lead going into the final period.

Rick Spurlock garnered two field goals in the productive third period.

North racked 21 points to Triad's 13 in the final quarter. The Steelers collected on 28 of 57 and Triad 23 of 58. From the foul line, North made 13 of 19 tosses and Triad nine of 17.

Triad committed the most fouls, 20-17, and the most turnovers, 18-13.

North High pulled down 28 rebounds. Schocker recovered 11, only one less than the entire Triad team.

Schocker set the scoring pace with 19 points. Schleicher had 16, Spurlock 12, Rodney Wortham and Jerry Barnett eight each and Tim Luehmann six.

SECTIONAL VOLLEYBALL CHAMPIONS

are these Granite City High School girls. Coached by Wilma Schulze, they captured the sectional tournament title Thursday night at Mount Olive and will play in the super-sectional game at Belleville West tomorrow night.

South in volleyball super-sectional match

Granite City High School South and Red Bud will clash head-on in super-sectional competition tomorrow to decide an entry into the second annual state volleyball finals, just as they did a year ago in the initial state tournament.

Coach Wilma Schulze's South High girls and Red Bud, both title victors in district and sectional competition, will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in a super-sectional pairing at Belleville West.

The victor there will compete in the state final Friday and Saturday at Illinois State University at Normal.

South High, Dupo district titlist, swept through the Mount Olive sectional last week, defeating Belleville West on Wednesday night.

High of Trenton on Thursday to advance to super-sectional play.

Against Weslin High at Mount Olive Thursday, South High lost 16-20 and then won two straight games, 20-13 and 21-9.

"Weslin provided tough competition," said South High's Wilma Schulze.

Wilma Schulze

In the first game, we led most of the way but Weslin came from behind and passed us.

In volleyball there is no pre-set time of play. Two teams compete until one earns 20 points or play continues if the first team to score 20 points does not have a two-point margin at that time.

After posting the 20-13 second-game win over Weslin, the two schools engaged in fierce competition in the deciding contest.

South High jumped to a 14-7 lead at one point, but the Weslin squad battled back to tie the contest several times, including a 19-19 deadlock before South High went ahead 20-19.

Leading a single point to claim the sectional title, South High shifted into "high gear," said Schulze.

"We rotated Robin Deterding up front near the net," said Schulze, "and it paid off for the final point."

She commended all the starting players for their performance

— Donna Macios, Delores Dochwat, Tammie Dewep, Robin Deterding, Pam Meszaros and Marsha Diak.

She also praised the remaining members of the team for their participation.

Debbie Barnes, Danna Dewep, Paula Wise, Theresa Hayes, Mary Livingston and Carla Knezevich.

As noted, tomorrow's super-sectional match the second time GCHS South and Red Bud will meet to decide a state entry.

Last year, Red Bud defeated South High and then placed third in the state tournament. South, in regular season competition, defeated its super-sectional opponent on Dec. 19, 1975.

James Dumont, GCHS South principal, said South High fans wishing to view the competition should arrive at the gymnasium at 7:30 p.m. and be charged $1.50 per adult for tickets and $1 per student with identification cards. Tickets will be sold — at the door only — there tomorrow.

Prather Junior High School matmen won all but one bout last week in defeating North of Collinsville 56-9 wins.

Coolidge record is set by Polson

Coach Larry Carl's Coolidge Junior High School wrestling team overpowered Mascoutah 50-15 last week in a road meet. The Braves improved their point margin over Mascoutah from 12 to 35 points compared to an earlier 1975-76 meet between the two schools.

Heavyweight Scott Polson pinned his opponent in 16 seconds to set a new school record, but the opponent, Heavyweight Mark Mizeraki, achieved a 21-second victory for the Braves in 1967-68.

Brad Peterson (119 pounds) won 7-1, Tom Busch (90) 12-1 and Rich James (135) 22-0, and Jay Borchers (112) wrestled to a 5-5 draw.

Coolidge winners on pins included Greg Garland (75 pounds) 12-0, Paul Zelanski (98) in 3:13, Mike Konzen (126) in 1:50, Bob Barton (144) in 3:53 and Tim Wyrosetz (170) in 4:59.

Tie by Prather, Mascoutah teams
Prather Junior High School matmen won seven of 13 bouts over visiting Mascoutah Thursday, but the opponents won five bouts on pins and another on a decision to deadlock the meet, 34-34.

Mascoutah gained three straight wins before Prather's Kevork Shrikian (96 pounds) won a 17-4 decision.

Following a loss, Prather attained four straight wins — Dan Perkins (112) 16-0, Jim Frangoulis (119) 12-7, Dave Barnett (126) on a pin in 2:22 and Mike Steen (135) 9-6.

Mascoutah won the next bout, and Prather went ahead on wins by Tom Gibson (155) in 5:55 and Randy Hewner (170) in 23 seconds. The visitors won the heavyweight bout.

Junior high wrestling
TUESDAY, Jan. 27
Prather at Coolidge 4 p.m.
THURSDAY, Jan. 29
Edwardsville at Prather 4 p.m.

60-48 LAKEVIEW WIN
The Lakeview Christian Academy High School Patriots of Pontoon Beach bowled 60-48 Thursday to the Eagles of Moberly, Mo., in a basketball contest played at the Lincoln Place Community Center.

McCallister led the Patriots with 22 points.

BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW
Brought To You by Milton Matthews

Do you know who holds the all-time college basketball record for getting the most rebounds in one season of play? It is not any of the big super stars you might think of. It's like Wilt Chamberlain or Kareem Abdul-Jabbar. Answer is Walter Dumas. He set the record when he played for Seton Hall in the 1952-53 season with 734 rebounds.

With all the big scores in pro basketball these days, did you ever wonder what the record is for the lowest scoring game in the history of the National Basketball Association? It happened Nov. 22, 1950 when the Pistons beat the Lakers 19-18. Believe it or not, that was the final score.

If your favorite basketball team wins a few games in a row, you get excited. If they win 16 in a row — that's really something... If they would win 75 in a row — well, that seems almost unbelievable... But what about a team winning more than that? 100 in a row? 150 in a row? Impossible?... Well, do you know a basketball team once won the amazing total of 158 games in a row?... That's the all-time record for any organized team in either high school, college or pro sports... This record was set by the Panama (N.I.) high school basketball team.

Between 1919 and 1925 they won 159 consecutive games!

I bet you didn't know... we can't please on our own.

Rusick, from Granite City High School South, is probably the finest player to come out of this region since Jimmy Conner, DeMars' brother, finished fourth in the state.

Coming off a 17-8 season, DeMars feels his club will be even stronger this year. The reasons are three top recruits, freshmen Arjun Fernando and Rick Rusick and sophomore Rick Harold.

Harold is a transfer student from Odesa Junior College in Houston, Tex. There he was the team's number one singles player and led the school to the national junior college championship.

Rusick, from Granite City High School South, is probably the finest player to come out of this region since Jimmy Conner, DeMars' brother, finished fourth in the state.

DeMars also expects big things from sophomore Randy Houston and senior Jim Johnson.

Johnson, a 6-6, 210-pounder from Alton, has played on the SIUE team each of the last two seasons. He broke even at 14-14 in singles last year. Houston, the son of an Army career man, came to SIUE from Karlsruhe, Germany, and had a 16-6 singles record.

Besides the Jan. 31 opener with Illinois State in Belleville, SIUE will play Division I schools like Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Illinois, Bradley and Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

The schedule includes seven tournaments, among them the 12-team Oral Roberts Tourney, the 16-team Drake University Tourney and the eight-team team Notre Dame Central Collegiate.

Women's achievements BPW club topic New desegregation guidelines to be considered at hearing

Women in the news was the topic of a report presented by Mrs. Ruth Buer at last week's dinner meeting of the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club at Charlie's Restaurant.

Individual Development night was the program theme and Mrs. Buer, International Women's Year chairman for the local BPW club, described the backgrounds of such noteworthy women as Connecticut Governor Ella Grasso; Susan Brownmiller, author of "The Feminine Mystique"; and John F. Kennedy, president of the United States.

Mrs. Genevieve Haddix, chairman and head of the Individual Development program for the business women's club, introduced the speaker, Mrs. Shirley Adams.

Mrs. Adams reviewed her own career history and explored several points of interest concerning women's aims and achieving goals in any endeavor she chooses to follow, whether in one's personal or business life.

The speaker is sales manager for Radio Station WGN and public relations chairman of the BPW Club.

Mrs. Valerie Stevens, Young Careerist chairman, said candidates still are being sought to compete in a state-operated trust fund as the local share for construction.

The local share is being raised by selling general obligation bonds, authorized by a recent successful bond election.

The local officials are to meet today with architectural engineers, a fund analyst and the project manager of the Capital Development Board to attempt to work out the final details of financing for the proposed school.

Tomorrow, the Madison school officials are to be in Chicago at a hearing on proposed guidelines for desegregation throughout the state.

The issue is of particular interest to the Madison district, which has been informed by the state superintendent of public instruction's office that its desegregation plans are not acceptable.

The proposed new state guidelines will be presented to the state Board of Education Feb. 12, along with suggestions made during tomorrow's hearing. The state board then is expected to revise its general state desegregation program.

Palchick explained the purpose and importance of this week's meetings during a special meeting of the Madison Board of Education Thursday night.

At that meeting, Palchick noted that the funds being handled by the district's treasurer, Ray Kozielek, have recently exceeded $1.2 million.

Since the board is required to provide a surety bond in an amount sufficient to assure the safety of all the money handled by the treasurer, the board had to increase Kozielek's bond from $1.2 million to $1.5 million.

Palchick noted recent appraisals have shown the value of the school district's buildings has increased since the former appraisal, and he suggested the board advertise for bids or insurance which would cover the higher values. The board agreed and instructed Palchick to set a date to receive bids and to advertise for bids by that date.

Contracts were awarded to numerous firms to supply miscellaneous small items required by the maintenance department. All bids were accepted on the basis of low bid to specifications after studying the above.

Moose enrollment night

Walter Spiers of Cahokia, president of Moose District 10, and Elmer Dintelmann of Belleville, past district president, were principal speakers last week at class enrollment night at Moose Lodge 372.

More than 200 attended the event at the Moose hall, 20th and Adams streets.

Forming the degree team for the enrollment ceremony were Ed Chastain, past governor; Jack Wilson, prelate; Harold Harris, governor; Charles Pabst, orator; and Charles Schaefer, sergeant-at-arms.

Dinner was served to lodge members, enrollees and their guests.

Special entertainment was provided by the Women of the Moose Kitchen Band, and music for dancing was played by The Sun Sets.

Candidates enrolled were Jonathan Swines, Carl Sturm, George Swaine, Melvin Retter, Eugene Harris, Robert Anderson, Raymond Kahn, Michael Thebeau, Herman O'Dell, Herbert Sturm, Joe Braicher, A. D. Overell, Carl Coleman, Carl Liggett, Arthur Chastain, Martin Connor, Leonard Crone, Michael Rogers, Bobby Copeland and Ralph Walden.

Mrs. Rosemary Baseden, club president, was in charge of the business session and introduced two guests, Gladys and Eve McDonald. Both are members of Alton BPW Club.

A Bicentennial quilt presently is being made and will be presented in May, Mrs. Stevens reported.

Mrs. Lil Marzuth and Mrs. Pauline Weir discussed the state convention at books Mrs. Weir also sought help in assembling kits for the annual conference which will take place April 22 to April 25 at the Palmer House in Chicago.

Mrs. Judith McCann of the membership committee said new members should be encouraged to join the club. She asked those knowing prospective members to contact her at 931-1550, or Mrs. Barbara Hodges, at 451-9992.

Any working woman is eligible to join the organization, Mrs. McCann stressed.

A nominating committee was asked to prepare a slate of officers for the 1976-77 club year.

"Young Careerist" night will be observed at the club's Feb. 18 dinner meeting, Mrs. Lavelle Stephens announced.

The Indian Dancers of Explorer Post 6, Society of the Red Shield, are now taking reservations for their Feb. 18 dinner meeting, Mrs. Lavelle Stephens announced.

Schuler, in a written communication to the aldermen, said plans for the proposed roadway will include storm-water drainage facilities which are intended to relieve flooding conditions in much of the area.

The new road plan is a revision of an earlier program which called for construction of a road extending from W. Pontoon Road, extending behind the Crossroad Plaza and Nameoki Village Shopping Centers, has been given a top priority rating and should be considered for funding as soon as present commitments of motor fuel tax funds have been met.

Mayor Paul Schuler, in E. Robertson who has been one of the leading proponents for building a roadway that would relieve some of the traffic congestion on Nameoki Road. The access road plan has been under consideration for nearly a decade.

Schuler told the aldermen that the roadway from W. Pontoon to Fehling Road was given priority in studies by the Highway, Traffic and Transportation Committee of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce.

"While a large portion of our MPT funds have already been committed, I suggest that the Robertson Road project be considered for funding with a high priority as soon as present commitments have been met," the mayor said.

MRS. DAVID LEE HOOTS, the former Miss Cynthia Ann Harris, who was married Saturday afternoon at the First Church of God in Decatur, Ill. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Harris, of Decatur, former residents.

Cynthia Ann Harris and David Lee Hoots are wed

An out-of-town wedding of interest here was that of Miss Cynthia Ann Harris, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Harris Sr., 2231 W. Riverview, Decatur, formerly of Granite City, and David Lee Hoots, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hoots of Decatur, taking place Saturday afternoon at the First Church of God in Decatur.

Bouquets of winter flowers and greenery provided the setting for the double ring candlelight ceremony performed at 2 o'clock by the Rev. Archie L. Albright.

Nuptial music was furnished by organist Larry Bounner.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a long white organza gown lavishly applied with Chantilly lace and etched with pearls on the bodice and high neckline.

The decorative lace trim was repeated on the cuffs of the long sheer sleeves, the skirt and chapel train.

She wore a Chantilly lace camelot headpiece to hold in place a bouffant veil of illusion, edged in matching lace.

Her colonial bouquet, composed of blue mums encircled with white roses and baby's breath, was festooned with long white streamers.

Matron of honor Mrs. Michael Osborne and the bridesmaid, Miss Kathy Jenkins and Miss Ann Marie Harris, a sister of the bride, wore identical cotton blue full-length gowns fashioned in an Empire style. Their dresses had square necklines and wide sleeves, banded in ivory lace.

Each wore a halo of blue mums and baby's breath in her hair and held long stem white roses, tied with blue streamers.

The flower girl, Missy Grunden, was dressed in a blue print frock with a round neck, wide sleeves and high rise waistline. She carried a white basket of rose petals.

Max Hoots, a nephew of the groom, served as ringbearer.

Attending the groom as best man was Bruce Yarbary. Groomsmen and ushers included Norman Burrow, Charles Lookabaug, Michael J. Harris Jr., a brother of the bride, and Allen Cole.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Policeman's Benevolent Hall. The rehearsal dinner was hosted at the Blue Mill. Both are in Decatur.

The bride is attending MacArthur High School and the groom graduated from Lakeview High School. He is assistant manager of Sandy's Store in Decatur.

The newlyweds will reside at 2614 N. Water, Decatur.

BRIDE-TO-BE. Miss Diane Bisto, whose engagement to Jim Simmons is being announced by her father, John Bisto, 712 Washington Ave., Madison. She also is the daughter of the late Mrs. Sabina Bisto.

Wedding plans are indefinite at the present time.

Educational TV Maryville topic

A film on the benefits of educational television programs was presented at the general meeting of Maryville School PTA by Marilyn Rothbard, Channel 9 director of school services.

Michael O'Shea, vice-president, presided at the business session and reports were given by Mrs. Ruth Todd, secretary, and Mrs. Pauline Pickens, treasurer.

Members approved a car wash on April 3, sponsored by sixth grade students, and also the annual sixth grade patrol trip.

Plans were finalized for a Bicentennial celebration at the school April 2, with various classes presenting a program on a specific historical event.

O'Shea asked for mothers to volunteer to assist at the event.

He then closed the meeting with prayer and refreshments were served in the school cafeteria.

Diane Bisto is engaged

The engagement of Miss Diane Bisto and Jim Simmons, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Simmons, 1044 Third St., Venice, is being announced by the bride-elect's father, John Bisto, 712 Washington Ave., Madison.

A graduate of Althoff Catholic High School in 1974, Miss Bisto is now employed at Glicks Department Store in Madison.

The prospective groom was graduated from Venice High School in 1974. He is now working for the Illinois Division of Highways at Wood River, Ill.

Wedding plans are indefinite at the present time.

Jr. Service Club plans style show

Granite City Junior Service Club members discussed cookbook sales, a fund raising project of the club, and a spring fashion show and program book during a business session last week at the Nameoki Presbyterian Church.

The federation luncheon was reviewed by the club president, Mary Lou Richardson.

Janet Warren was installed as a new member during the meeting. Mrs. Janet LeGrand and Mrs. Brenda Weckman served as hostesses.

Others present were Rita Overath, Helen Parsagian, Beverly King, Gale McFarland, Charlene Pohlman, Faith Holsinger, Flora Mae Lensing, Carolyn Thornburg, Pam Reed, Donna Sprankle, Sue Riess and Jannie Staats.

Mrs. Mary Lou Worthen will host the club's next board meeting, it was announced.

MHC Youth Group to plan dinner

Plans for a dinner in March were reviewed by the Mexican Honorary Commission's Youth Group at a meeting this week.

Kathy Antoff was named dinner chairman and announced final arrangements for the event will be made at the February business session.

The group convened in the Mexican Honorary Commission hall, 1801 Spruce St. Louis Ybarra, president, was in charge.

The young people also agreed to work in the kitchen area at a dance and party, planned Feb. 14 under sponsorship of the MHC's baseball team.

Childrens Aid Society reports

A regional meeting of Illinois Children's Home and Aid Society, a United Fund agency, was held at Holiday Inn, Alton, for a quarterly session. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Yellon, Mrs. David Maxton and Mrs. Frank L. Kraus, secretary, attended from Granite City.

The meeting was conducted by Dr. Robert Ashpole, regional president and reports were given for the past year. Dr. Ashpole commended all who had a part in raising funds to purchase the building at 1002 College Ave., Alton. The group heard a report on progress of work to the exterior of the building. Other annual reports were made by various fund-raising chairmen.

Mary Yowell, director of the Illinois society, gave a year-end report and stressed the need for foster homes in the Granite City, Collinsville and Edwardsville area. It is the hope of the agency that homes will be opened to three to five adolescents each. Anyone wishing more information may contact Miss Mary Yowell at (1) 462-2714.

A. R. Howard, director of University News Service at SIU at Edwardsville, was the speaker. He gave information on public relations programs, including publicity in local newspapers.

THE SCHERMER BULLETIN

We had a real sleeper last week. Fresh Strawberries at 59¢ per quart. We knew we didn't have enough to advertise them "while they last."

The "big package" has a lot of appeal to large families. We are getting a lot of attention to our 6-lb. can of spiced ham and the 5-lb. package of sliced Blue Bell Bolognas.

We have a new line of rolls and bread coming in from Chicago every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Onion rolls, egg bread, egg bread with raisins, etc. Ask one of our managers to show it to you. We will have samples of the items at the snack bar.

The best meat buy is still Turkey. It's been long enough from the holidays to try another one. Real good eating at a very low price; grade "A" Hen Turkeys only 59¢ per lb. And they are family size 8 to 10 lb. average.

TO MARRY, Miss Carolyn Garton and Larry D. Weaver, whose engagement is being announced by the bride-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Garton, Atoka, Okla. A May 1 wedding is planned.

Weaver-Garton engagement

News has been received here from Atoka, Okla., of the engagement of Miss Carolyn Garton and Larry D. Weaver, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon H. Weaver, 2108 Nevada Ave. The announcement was made by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Garton of Atoka. Miss Garton is a sophomore at Oklahoma Christian College (OCC). Her fiancé graduated from OCC with a major in business administration. He is now employed by a motel chain in Oklahoma City, Okla. Plans are being completed by the betrothed couple for a wedding on May 1. They will reside in Oklahoma City after their marriage.

Emerson's Bicentennial quilt convention entry

A Bicentennial quilt prepared by third and fourth grade students at Emerson School will be entered in the Junior American Citizens Club competition at the Daughters of the American Revolution state convention, Mrs. Janet Wilson reported at a meeting last week of the Drusilla Andrews DAR Chapter.

Regent Mrs. Ruth McCarty opened the meeting at Charles Restaurant with the pledge of allegiance. The President General's message was read by Mrs. Wilson.

Four "Good Citizens" have been selected from among area high school students whose names will be publicly announced at the George Washington Tea on Feb. 22, Mrs. Wilson said. She said the four are "very outstanding in their school activities."

Contributions were made to various DAR-supported agencies, as well as to the Veteran's Hospital at Marion, Ill.

Cemetery markers for deceased members and the problem of vandalism were discussed. The secretary was asked to contact eligible families to determine if they want a marker, or if they wish for a donation to be made in the deceased member's name to a DAR school.

A slate of officers for the 1976-78 period was presented and accepted. The formal election will be held at the March meeting.

Those nominated are: Mrs. Wilson, regent; Mrs. McCarty, vice regent; Mrs. Barbara Williams, secretary; Mrs. Emma Schoen, registrar; Mrs. Eva Meier, chaplain; and Mrs. Margaret Belt, treasurer.

Several members presented short topics in lieu of the program. Among those participating were Miss Nelle Hart, Mrs. D. Reva Turner, Mrs. Meier, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Schoen and the committee chairman, Miss Ella Ray Smith.

Also present were Mrs. Ruth Mitchell and Mrs. Helen Gantcheff.

Persons believing they may qualify for DAR membership are invited to attend the group's next meeting on Sunday, Feb. 22, at 2 p.m. at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church. The event will be a tea honoring the "Good Citizens" of the local high schools.

Pack 141 named top sales unit

Cub Pack 141 of Mitchell School was designated the top sales unit in the Cahokia Round Council's popcorn sale in November. Cubmaster James Graham announced at last week's pack meeting.

Danny Whiteside and Greg Peck led pack members as the top individual salesmen, the group was advised.

Graham and Assistant Cubmaster Charles Buford awarded Sammy Tate a gold and five silver arrows; Mike Acinelli, one gold arrow and four silver arrows; Darren Clutta, a gold arrow and two silver arrows; Tim Bladdick three silver arrows and Wolf badge.

Weebelos who received the craftsman award were Cliff Bladdick and Cliff Lindsay. A citizenship badge went to Danny Whiteside, and recruiter badges were presented to John Fetter, Lenny Graham, Greg Peck, Mike Acinelli, Todd Thomason and Mike Cox.

Naomi Class aids Lottie Moon fund

Naomi Class of the First Baptist Church of Granite City agreed to send a donation to the Lottie Moon Fund as its monthly project and to mail cards to church members who are ill at meeting last week.

Members gathered in the home of Mrs. Leona Delaloyne, 2683 Washington Ave. for the meeting, conducted by Mrs. Jessie Schwendemann, president.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Lena Scarborough.

Members attending included Myrtle Howell, Carl Hoffman, Effie Johnson and Iva Rive.

Guests were the Rev. and Mrs. Marvin Peters and children, Stacy and Kevin.

'Child Abuse' chapter topic

"The Abused and Neglected Child" was the subject of a talk given by the Rev. Kenneth Edelman from the Illinois Children's Family Center, Alton, at a meeting of Nu Zeta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority.

Three guests, Linda Farnbach, Carol Moerlein and Sharon Case, attended the program held in the home of Miss Emily Farnbach, 202 Granville Ave., Venice, last week.

After the program a ritual of jewelry ceremony was conducted for Cheryl Barton.

Members present included Carla Ashmore, Martha Delveski, Judy Haven, Bobbie Lewis, Linda McKeach, Donna McIlvoy and Shari Smith.

TRAINING PROGRAM

An Assertive Training Group for Women will be offered at the Granite City Mental Health Clinic beginning Feb. 10. The group will meet on Tuesday afternoons from 1:15 to 2:45 for eight Tuesdays. Group members need not be clinic patients. The fee is $15 for eight sessions. Anyone interested in joining the group, may call 877-4420.

MRS. CARL R. CLINE, who was married in an early afternoon ceremony at St. John Lutheran Church. The bride is the former Miss Patricia Ann Jansen, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Jansen.

Cline-Jansen wedding at St. John Lutheran

Miss Patricia Ann Jansen and Carl Ray Cline exchanged vows in a candlelight ceremony at St. John Lutheran Church, St. Clair and Dale avenues, on Dec. 20.

The Rev. Samuel Boda officiated at the service at 4 p.m.

Parents of the bride were the late Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Jansen, who resided at 2811 Marshall Ave. The groom is a son of Ellius Cline of Thayer, Mo., and the late Mrs. Rhea Cline.

Escorted to the altar by her brother, Ronald Jansen, the bride wore an ivory satin gown fashioned with Juliet sleeves. A decorative lace overlay detailed the cuffs and the front of her dress.

Her full-length veil was bordered in scalloped lace and held in place with a lace headpiece. She carried a nosegay of red roses, red and white carnations and baby's breath.

Mrs. Karen Hall, a sister of the bride, was honor attendant. She chose a gown of hunter green velvet, enhanced with ivory lace on the bodice and cuffs of the Juliet sleeves.

She held a nosegay of red and white carnations and baby's breath with red streamers.

Laura Jansen, the bride's niece, served as flower girl, wearing a frock similar in style to the honor attendant's dress. She held a miniature nosegay of red blossoms.

The groom chose Claude Davis as his best man. Carl Perkins and Samuel Brawley seated the guests.

Sarah Perkins presided over the guest book at a buffet reception held in the Murial Room of Panorama Lanes in Belleville.

A graduate of Granite City High School, the bride is now employed at Peabody Coal Co. The groom was graduated from Thayer High School and now works for the Frisco Railroad.

The couple is residing in Granite City following a wedding trip to Michigan.

'Talent Night' at Mount Zion

Mount Zion General Baptist Church held a talent night at the church last week. Members of the congregation presented musical solos, poem recitations and discussions.

To open the event Harriet Phidige, a teacher, led the Twilight Class in song, followed with an object lesson given by Norman Sharp.

Mrs. Melvin Osborn discussed the bus ministry and devotions were offered by Ossall Warren. Twyette Sweet recited a poem and solos were sung by Miss Crystal Nance, Suzie Ray, Richard Williams and Nancy Livesay. A piano solo was played by Pam Warren and a quartet, consisting of Nancy Livesay, Janet Green, Donna and Melvin Osborn, performed. Songs also were sung by the Ambassador Class, directed by the teacher, Jewel Morris, and Dorothy Cox sang a number she had written.

To conclude the evening, an oil painting by Carolyn LeMaster was displayed and presented to the church.

Baptismal services were conducted by the Rev. Donald Clark, followed by refreshments in the fellowship hall.

Mrs. Matson is circle hostess

Mrs. Helen Matson was hostess to Circle Four of the First United Presbyterian Church last week and Mrs. Barbara Landis gave the lesson taken from Isaiah.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Eunice Witter. Plans were made to continue sending money each month for a Bible to be given those in the missionary field.

Mrs. Violet Jeffers led the Fellowship of the Least Coin service and Mrs. Arlene Fox read the Yearbook of Prayer.

A dessert course was served by the hostess to 17 members and a guest, Mrs. David Maxton.

Social meeting for Eta Chapter

A social meeting of Eta Chapter, Phi Tau Omega Sorority, was held at The Barred last week, hosted by Ann Tatum, Evelyn Todd, Gladys Waggoner and Mary Evalyne Yench.

Games were directed by the hostesses and prizes were awarded to Eunice Hatcher, Betty Krug, Shirley Morgan, Georgiana Van Buskirk and Kathryn Weddell.

Others present were Lorraine Butler, Jo Erway, Millie Greathouse, Mary Hassler, Lois Hodge, Mary Lou Richardson, Hilda Schroeder and Dolores Sheridan.

The next meeting is scheduled Feb. 4.

Marine Corps League aids 100 children

Commander Harry Walker of the Quad-City Detachment, Marine Corps League, reported 100 children in Granite City were given toys at Christmas as part of the league's annual project, "Toys for Tots." He made the report at a meeting last week at Armvets Post 204 in Madison.

Co-chairmen of the holiday program, Mrs. Dorothy Wheeler and Robert Peters, announced the toys were furnished by local businessmen and dolls were received from Granite City Trust and Savings Bank.

7TH BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR JEFF BLEVINS

A football theme was used in the decorations at a party for Jeff Blevins on his seventh birthday given by his mother, Mrs. Jo Ann Blevins, 6 Queensbury Court, last week.

Several games were played during the afternoon and prizes were awarded to the winners.

Refreshments were served by the hostess to Harry Briggs, Kevin Cox, Kelli, Keri and Reva Kynion, Rhonda Tipler, Chris Barnes, Pam Robb, Cobi Smith, Eric Wise and Roger Tipton.

Assisting Mrs. Blevins at the party was Janet Elmore.

Beta Sigma Phi Council plans events

Reports relating to the annual Founders' Day observance of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, set for April 28 at Charlie's Restaurant, were given at a meeting of the Beta Sigma Phi City Council meeting last week.

Mrs. Linda Koenig, president, presided at the session held in the home of Mrs. Linda Yates.

Other projects discussed concerned the Valentine's Day dance on Feb. 14 at the Collinsville Holiday Inn and entries in the Bicentennial parade on July 3.

The group also reviewed progression policies of the sorority, as several members are now eligible.

Mrs. Koenig announced the Feb. 10 meeting will be held in the home of Miss Emily Farnbach.

A dessert course was served by the hostess to chapter representatives Linda McKeehan, Emily Farnbach, Arlene Haldeman, Pat Tsigelaro, Pat Howard, Marilyn Lumpkins, Carolyn Goodwin, Barbara Hente, Jane Yates, Linda Yates, Judy Onesky and Charlotte Charbonier.

Patron chairmen for Mardi Gras Ball

Thad Carter, board chairman of the Madison County Unit of the American Cancer Society, announced this week that Mr. and Mrs. Earl French of Granite City, will again serve as the patron chairmen for the sixth annual Mardi Gras Ball, to be sponsored in February by the society.

The ball will take place on Saturday, Feb. 28, in the Lewis and Clark Restaurant Ballroom at East Alton. Preceding the dance, a cocktail party will be held at the New Ramada Inn on the Beltline in Alton, exclusively for ball patrons.

Mr. and Mrs. French will cohost the pre-ball party with Mrs. Nick Maggos, Jim Anderson, Jeanne Yakubian, Harold Ruyle, Allan Riehl and Carter. Persons attending the cocktail party will have an opportunity to meet and talk with the celebrity guest and other special guests participating in the Mardi Gras activities, Carter explained.

French is safety director for M. C. Slater, Inc. of Granite City. He is a member of Almad Shrine Temple of East St. Louis. His wife, Mary, is employed by Mercantile Mortgage Co. in Clayton, Mo.

Information concerning the Mardi Gras Ball and patrons' cocktail party may be obtained by calling Earl French at 787-0600.

'ZEBRA FORCE' PRODUCER VISITS FRIENDS IN GC

Hollywood producer Larry Price visited last week at the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Beswick, 3841 Washington Ave. He was accompanied by his wife, Pat, and son, David.

Price's newest film, "Zebra Force," in which he also appears, is scheduled to be released in the St. Louis area in February.

Hardy new potentate; 4 Granite Cityans elected

The Nobility of Aina Temple, Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, elected Bob Hardy, Belleville, to head the 8,400 nobles of Southern Illinois for 1976 during a stated session at the Mosque in East St. Louis Thursday night.

Hardy, director of special events for radio station KMOX of St. Louis, succeeds William R. Popkess, insurance executive of Belleville. He is the 66th potentate of Aina, one of the 180 temples in Shrinism and among the leaders in child assistance at Shriners Hospitals for Crippled Children.

Others elected were: Ralph Green of Belleville, chief rabban; C.A. "Jack" Dempsey of Granite City, assistant rabban.

Richard Ervay of Granite City, high priest and prophet; Ray Tibbs of Mt. Vernon, Oriental guide; J. William Harrington of Belleville, treasurer; William R. Popkess of Highland, recorder.

Donald Adams of Granite City, first ceremonial master; Mark Moreton of Freeburg, second ceremonial master; Bill Parker of Fairfield, director; Gene Morris of DuQuoin, marshal; Joseph Barnes Jr. of Belleville, captain of the guard; Thomas Barschak of Edwardsville, orator; and Raymond R. Burton Jr. of Granite City, outer guard.

The Rev. G. V. Tolley of O'Fallon was appointed as chaplain for the 19th consecutive year.

Delegates to the Imperial Council session in Kansas City during July also were elected. They include Potentate Hardy, Chief Rabban Green, Assistant Rabban Dempsey, Edward G. Mang, past potentate, and Emeritus Representative J. C. Nichols, a past potentate. Nichols has been to the past 27 Imperial Council sessions.

Hardy became a noble of Aina in the spring of 1963 and has been active ever since. He moved from the Klowns of the director's staff to the officers' Divan when appointed by Francis Conner.

Hardy resides with his wife, Re, whom he met while he was in the Air Force and she was a member of the Women's Air Force. While retraining for a March of Dimes show, they decided to team up permanently.

They have a daughter, Sandy, now making her home in California with her husband, Lt. Glen Chinn, a jet pilot with the Air Force, and a son, Bob Jr., attending SIUE.

Mrs. Hardy has been active in the Daughters of the Nile. Her daughter served as honored queen of Bethel 24, Job's Daughters of Belleville, and Bob Hardy Jr. was a member of the DeMolay chapter of Belleville.

The new potentate was born in DuBois, Pa., and educated in Syracuse, N. Y., moving there shortly after he was born in 1930. A graduate of Onondaga Valley Academy, Hardy left Syracuse for the Air Force at the age of 19, being assigned to Scott Air Force Base as an instructor in radio communications.

Completing a first hitch, he re-enlisted and was sent to the Philippine Islands. While there, he supervised construction of a broadcast radio station added to the Armed Forces Radio Network at Clark Air Force Base. Hardy returned to Scott, again as a teacher in the Communication School, but by then broadcasting was emerging as a goal. In Belleville, he began weekend work with WIBW Radio and then moved to WIL in St. Louis, serving there as news director for 2 1/2 years. He joined the KMOX team in 1960 and was named news director in 1968 and director of special events in 1973.

Hardy is a member of the Radio-Television News Directors' Association, Sigma Delta Chi, past president of the St. Louis Press Club, a member of the Board of McKendree College, a private pilot and an avid boater. His floating "home on the Mississippi" is one of his favorite places.

Ainad Compacts install officers

The Ainad Compacts, a Shrine motorcycle unit of Aina Temple, held its annual installation of officers and dinner party at the Officers Club of the Granite City Army Installation.

Officers to serve for the current year are John Helton, president; Kelly Hogan, vice-president; Jerry Adams, secretary; Al Woodard, treasurer, and Vernon Clutts, captain.

Gene Ross served as master of ceremonies and welcomed all people who attended the event, including 19 members of the Compacts and their wives. Special guests were four members of the Aina Divan and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dempsey, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ervay and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Banks.

Following the installation and dinner, music for dancing was furnished by the "Country Saints," featuring the singing of Doris Blondell and Tony Jackson.

BREAK INTO STATION
A window on the north side of Ernie's Standard service station, 24th Street and Washington Avenue, was opened to gain entry, it was discovered at 7:40 a.m. Wednesday. A cigarette machine against the window had to be pushed away in order to climb in. An inventory was to be taken to determine if anything was stolen.

PFC. T. J. Zotti to Germany

Army Private First Class Timothy J. Zotti, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Zotti, 200 Willow Ave., has departed for Frankfurt, Germany, after spending a 30-day leave at home.

He will serve 16 months in Germany and be reassigned to Fort Carson, Colo., to complete his tour of duty. The serviceman was trained at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., and attended school in material and supply at Fort Lee, Va.

Pfc. Zotti graduated from Granite City High School South and from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale with a degree in commercial graphics.

Matching funds for open space

Applications for matching state funds to buy park and recreation land through the Illinois Conservation Department's Open Space Lands Acquisition (OSLA) program are now being taken.

Initial applications for the state funds, which will be provided to local governments on a 50-50 reimbursement basis, should be received by the Department of Conservation by Feb. 1.

Final applications must be in by April 1. Since all projects are placed on a priority basis, areas should file early, a spokesman said.

Madison, St. Clair, and Monroe Counties requested funding for projects last year, and all were funded in the amounts requested. These included:

$25,000 to Cahokia for the Jarrott Mansion and the Cahokia Village Courthouse.

$50,000 to Collinsville for 20 acres south of Collinsville for development of a sports complex.

$30,000 to Fairview Heights to buy 8.76 acres for a mini-park.

$8,500 to Glen Carbon for 17.75 acres for a recreation area.

$15,000 to St. Jacob for a 20-acre park.

$50,000 to Wood River for a 50-acre nature area.

And $12,000 to Wood River Township for a 13.6-acre site for a park.

The funds come from bonds issued by the state Capital Development Board and appropriated to the Illinois Department of Conservation.

To obtain applications public agencies may contact Steve Gonzalez, Illinois Department of Conservation, 605 State Office Building, Springfield, Ill. 62706 or call (217) 782-7481.

For more information about the program or for help in completing the application, they may call Bob Varus, recreation program manager at the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council, (618) 274-2750, extension 235.

Julliard performance, Music Institute in Festival's plans

Performances by the Julliard String Quartet and the Scottish National Orchestra, as well as the establishment of the Mississippi River Festival Summer Music Institute for the 1976 MRF summer season, were announced at an MRF board of directors meeting today.

The River Festival, in its eighth season, is held on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. The board of directors announced that most of the 1976 summer season's fine arts programs have already been set, including a July 1 performance by the Julliard String Quartet and July 10-11 performances by the Scottish National Orchestra chorus with the St. Louis Symphony.

Other highlights of the fine arts programs include an expanded chamber music program, a two-week residency by the St. Louis Symphony, a seven-week American Film Festival and a three-day American Jazz Festival.

"There also will be a repeat of last summer's successful barbershop quartet workshops and performances—and an expanded program in modern dance, with performances and workshops by James Cunningham and the Acme Dance Company in mid-July, and performances and workshops by the Murray Louis Dance Company in late July.

"The 1976 season is a considerable expansion over 1975's successful fine arts program," said Vicky Holt, concert manager for the MRF. "We have doubled our monetary investment in fine arts to nearly a quarter-million dollars."

Mrs. Holt and Festival Director Lyle Ward are hoping for an even greater increase in fine arts patronage over last year's increase, as well as continued support from various private and public agencies in granting funds to help support the fine arts segment of the River Festival.

The MRF Summer Music Institute, produced in cooperation with the St. Louis Conservatory of Music and the SIUE music department, will hold five one-week workshops during the festival period.

The workshops will cover the following topics: vocal, piano, electronic music, humanities education and the Suzuki string method.

The closing concert of the 1976 season will be by the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

The internationally acclaimed Julliard String Quartet's performance opens the expanded chamber music program.

The quartet, composed of Robert Mann, violin, Early Carls, violin, Samuel Rhodes, viola, and Joel Kronick, cello, is making just two summer appearances.

The quartet will also open the chamber season at the Chicago area Ravinia festival, as well as the MRF.

The Cleveland String Quartet, composed of the four principal string players with the Cleveland Symphony, will perform Aug. 2 under the direction of the concert master, Daniel Majeske.

Other chamber music programs take place in the Religious Center of SIUE on July 8, 15, 22 and 29, and perhaps on Aug. 5. Programs already arranged include works by Brahms, Mozart, Monteverdi, Vivaldi, Chopin and Schumann, as well as Gerstner's Rhapsody in Blue for piano (the original composition), and sonatas by Vincent Persichetti and Cesar Frank, as well as other works by various composers.

The Scottish National Orchestra, performing with the St. Louis Symphony under the direction of conductor Alexander Gibson, will appear July 10 and 11 at the Festival site.

A special extended stage is being arranged to handle the St. Louis Symphony and 250-voice chorus, which has been called "exceptional in its great control of dynamics—they are wonderful in pianissimo and outstandingly precise in dictation and intonation."

The chorus is making a coast-to-coast American tour with the official blessing of the British government's U. S. Bicentennial Arts Committee.

Along with performing with the Scottish National Chorus on two dates, the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra will present three other concerts during its two-week residency, including an Aug. 15 "Sing Out America" performance under the guidance of conductor Franz Allers.

The special performance will feature soloists Betty Jones and Robert Moore, from the New York City Opera, in a concert version of "Porgy and Bess." The first half of the program will be songs by Cole Porter and Jerome Kern.

The three-week long American Jazz Festival, produced in cooperation with the St. Louis Bicentennial Commission, will provide workshops in conjunction with June 23, 24 and 25 performances by the Preservation Hall Jazz Band, the Benny Goodman Sextet and the Chuck Mangione Quartet, respectively.

The 1976 season's expanded dance program includes two residencies, produced in cooperation with the Washington University/Performing Arts Area Summer Dance Institute and SIUE dance department.

James Cunningham and the Acme Dance Company will be appearing at the Festival site July 17 and 18 and 19.

Acme has been called by critics "a young group which stretches and redefines current conceptions of modern dance."

On July 30 and 31, the Murray Louis Dance Company will perform at the Festival site. The Louis company will be in residence July 28-31.

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

Louis himself has been called "one of the great dancers on the stage today." The New York Times referred to him as "a tremendous virtuoso dancer with a kind of muscular control that probably cannot be matched." His works are conceived theatrically, and the finished product is an integration of music, sound, lights, decor and costumes.

"The classes and lectures activities for the dance companies will be at Washington University and at SIUE," said Mrs. Holt. "All performances will be at the Festival site."

"This expanded dance

program is just one example of how much extra effort is being put into making the fine arts program for the 1976 summer season a real participatory part of the Mississippi River Festival.

"With the barbershop workshops, the dance companies and their workshops and lectures, the Summer Music Institute, the jazz classes, and the fourth annual Arts and Crafts Fair, this season promises to be as enjoyable for the many, many participants as it will be for the patrons of the performances. It should be an exciting summer."

JULLIARD STRING QUARTET. The group will be featured at the 1976 Mississippi River Festival, an annual summertime entertainment and educational concert series held on the SIUE campus.

Assumption seeking director

The Rev. Ed Barbier, chairman of the Board of Assumption High School, reports that the board has been commissioned to appoint a successor to fill the position of executive director for the 1976-77 term.

A search committee has been established to interview candidates and is currently taking applications for the position. It will become vacant June 1 with the resignation of Bro. Eugene Meyerpeter, S.M. The Catholic school in East St. Louis has an enrollment including Quad-Cityans.

Bro. Meyerpeter, who will have completed six years in direction of Assumption High School—four years as principal and two years as executive director—will begin a computer science course for management executives at Washington University in St. Louis during the second semester of this year. He will participate in a Marianist Renewal Program in Narragansett, R.I., this summer and engage in independent study at the university.

In preparation for his new career, he will then be on sabbatical and will attend the university on a full-time basis. A native of north St. Louis, Bro. Meyerpeter first came to Assumption in 1957 as a teacher of chemistry and mathematics. His next assignments took him to Chicago, Cincinnati, and Cleveland.

He returned to Assumption as assistant principal in 1964-65 and then accepted the assignment of director of the Marianist Apostolic Center at Glencoe, Mo., for four years. While there, he was largely responsible for development of a retreat center which had just been constructed.

With the 1970-71 school term,

Bro. Meyerpeter was appointed principal of Assumption. One of the major revisions which took place under his leadership was introduction of a council system, through which all students have an opportunity to participate in the operation of the school.

When a steady decline in enrollment and increased financial expenditures at both St. Teresa Academy and Assumption led to consolidation of the two schools, he accepted the post of executive director in a team administration.

In planning for the future, Fr. Barbier has said that the board is committed to the five-member team administration structure as presently defined. The executive director position is open to a religious or lay person with the necessary academic requirements who would be willing to emphasize public relations and development with the terms of the present job description.

Steal color television

Two women, one believed to be from East St. Louis, stole a television from Peder & Sons Furniture, Niedringhaus and Delmar avenues, at 3:20 p.m. Thursday.

Al Weiss, the manager, said the two women entered and one questioned him about a television stand while the other disappeared and was believed to have pushed the television to the front door and out of the store.

Both women then left and Weiss discovered a $351 color television was missing.

County wants promise of gas to heat new jail

"Speak softly and carry a big stick," the philosophy of former President Theodore Roosevelt, is being considered by the Madison County Board in an attempt to assure natural gas for heating at the proposed new Madison County Jail at Edwardsville.

Board President Nelson Hagnauer of Granite City noted during the January County Board meeting last week that the county approves many free rights-of-way for Illinois Power Co.

and stop and take a good, hard look at each request."

In an unrelated incident, which aided Hagnauer in making his point, the board tabled action on a right-of-way request from Illinois Bell Telephone Co., for an easement through a proposed county park in Wood River.

After a lengthy discussion, the board voted 14-1 to purchase a car for an investigator being utilized by the Madison County state's attorney's office. A grant from the Southwestern Illinois Law Enforcement Commission pays 90 percent of the cost of the investigator program, including 90 percent of the $4,400 car and its maintenance and fuel.

Board members expressed two objections to purchasing the car. Some feared that purchasing a car for the investigator would set a precedent which would lead to other county officials wanting cars for their own use.

Other board members objected to purchasing the Mercury Monarch requested because lower bids had been received from other dealers on other makes of cars.

It was only after a tag line was added to the motion to purchase the car that board members approved it. The tag line said that the car was being purchased for the investigator, only because it was being purchased with a 90 per cent grant, and that the action was not to be construed by other county officials as a precedent for purchasing more cars for officials.

He noted the overall grant is $44,000, even though the state reduced it from the $80,000 it first offered.

Board members objected because bids first were sought on a car with the notation the bids were not to exceed $4,200.

Only bids for compact cars were received and the county requested more grant money to purchase a bigger car. Approval was given and bids received the second time ranged from $4,072 to $4,399 for medium sized cars.

The investigator suggested the Monarch for $4,382, saying other police departments had experienced less maintenance and better handling for police work in Monarchs than in the other cars on which bids were received.

Agreement on the issue was not reached, resulting in the split vote when the car purchase from Plaza Lincoln-Mercury, Alton, was approved. Political differences were cited as the reason for an expense claim from the Veterans Assistance Commission being tabled for further study.

Debate on the bill was quickly halted after opponents alleged one official was spending too much for trips, and defenders said all of the trips taken were for legitimate business.

Noting that there were differing opinions in the finance committee on the bill, board members asked that the committee prepare written majority and minority position reports for the board to study by the next meeting.

Board member Verle L. Miller of Cottage Hills said he does not feel his area is receiving its share of employees assigned throughout the county under the Manpower grant program.

Hagnauer suggested that public debate on the issue be limited and said he would check with Dan Churovich, director of the Manpower program here, to determine if the workers are being distributed on a basis fair to each area.

"This involves federal money and as we play politics each day, let's be careful we don't play politics with this, because we would be in a heck of a shape without this," Hagnauer commented.

He said he feels Churovich is making decisions on the placements according to areas of greatest need and not because of political pressures.

Pure water goals may not be met by 1977

It is essential that water pollution control requirements scheduled for 1977 be completed by both industry and municipalities before any decision is made to move to the water requirements scheduled for 1983, Frederick G. Jaicks, chairman of the American Iron and Steel Institute, said last week in Washington before the 1975 to 1985, Jaicks said.

Of this, $1.4 billion per year would be for pollution control. As a basis for comparison, Jaicks cited the steel industry's average capital expenditure for all purposes between 1968 and 1975 of $1.7 billion per year.

Achievement of the 1977 requirements would remove 96 per cent of total contaminants from steel industry effluents, Jaicks said. He stressed, "It is imperative that we consider the cost effectiveness of proceeding from 1977 to 1983 guidelines."

In the judgment of the steel industry, he said, "it would be most unwise to proceed blindly to implement 1983 guidelines without first determining the justification for such a costly dollar- and energy-consuming action."

In concluding, Jaicks reaffirmed the industry's judgment that "incremental costs involved in proceeding from 1977 requirements to 1983 requirements are not justified by the incremental benefits."

productive uses, without a suitable environmental return, will result in the needless export of jobs to the detriment of our economy," Jaicks said.

Total steel industry capital costs, including environmental spending, capacity expansion and replacement of existing facilities, will be about $5.5 billion per year over the period 1975 to 1985, Jaicks said.

Jaicks, who is also chairman of Inland Steel Co., praised the work of the commission staff and urged that the NCWC be empowered to complete its mission of determining all the aspects of meeting — or not meeting — the 1983 water requirements.

The staff report concludes that neither public nor private sectors of the American economy will be able to meet the requirements for compliance with the 1977 water quality requirements, Jaicks said.

Therefore, before moving on to the 1983 requirements, he said, "we should await the improvements in water quality which will result from the 1977 requirements" when they are finally met.

Jaicks agreed with the staff report's statement that "measuring and analytical techniques are not good enough in many instances to tell us the value of the incremental water quality improvements" that might occur under the 1983 requirements.

On the other hand, Jaicks called attention to some "erroneous assumptions" in the staff report and to the exclusion of certain other factors that he feels should be addressed in the commission's final report to Congress.

He contested the assumption that cost increases from environmental expenditures could be based on as price increases. "Recent federal intervention in steel industry pricing and the impact of foreign competition from steel imports" refute this assumption, he said.

Jaicks also noted that the staff report failed to include the cost of the capital needed to meet water control requirements. When these are added to operating and maintenance costs, he said, annual costs will be more than seven times annual benefits by 1985.

The steel industry is vitally concerned with the issue of capital formation and the expansion of steelmaking capability to meet the demand for steel in the years ahead, Jaicks said.

"We are also concerned that any diversion of capital from

800 in car pool

Approximately 800 students, faculty and staff members registered at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Forms for the voluntary program are available twice a year at the regular registration period. Persons may again sign up at fall registration, according to James Bridwell, assistant professor of earth sciences and planning, who initiated the program.

The East-West Gateway Coordinating Council computes the completed forms and provides a list for each participant containing the names of those who live within close proximity. The list is only an aid; the participants may use toward forming their individual car pools.

"Though the program only started this quarter, the response was not as good as I had hoped," he added. "But we will take from this and learn what changes we can make to promote better results."

Bridwell is working in cooperation with the Student Planning Association of SIUE.

"Car pooling means a certain sacrifice, but it is a necessary one," he said. "Unfortunately, many don't want to leave home earlier or wait longer than they have to. It's an unwillingness to bend and to give up some convenience for conservation."

"Perhaps if gasoline prices increase, it may become an economic — and more apparent — necessity."

Services held for Mrs. Nell Reid, 80

Graveside services were held at 11:30 a.m. Friday at Sunset Hill Cemetery, Edwardsville Township, for Mrs. Nell (Mitchell) Reid, 80, of Colonial Haven Nursing Home.

She died at the nursing home at 8:50 p.m. Wednesday. Her husband, Bert Reid, died in 1951. She is survived by one son, James H. Mitchell of New York City, N. Y.

Optimists told of GC history

There was nothing but open fields north of 23rd Street in 1925, Arthur D. Roseman told the Thursday noon meeting of the Granite City Optimist Club.

Optimist Roseman spoke to the club about the early history of Granite City. He said he and his family moved here when he was 5 years old in 1905.

Some of the highlights he remembered and described to the club was taking a 105-mile trip in a horse-drawn wagon and his family's first truck.

There also was a major flood soon after his family moved here, he recalled.

Optimist Roseman related memories of the World's Fair in St. Louis in 1904 and the beginning of Wilson park in 1921.

Dave Brooks, president of the club, announced that there will be an Optimist zone meeting Tuesday at 7 p.m. at the Lewis and Clark Restaurant in East Alton.

The club is planning a special ladies' day program for Thursday, Feb. 12.

City, Illinois, at the hour of 1:15
P.M. CST on the 19th day of February, 1976, at which meeting it will consider a petition for the amendment of Ordinance No. 1755, (being the Zoning Ordinance of said City), as same affects the following described real estate, to-wit: A tract of land located in the Northeast Quarter of Section 9, Township Three (3)
North, Range Nine (9) West of the Third Principal Meridian, situated in the City of Granite City, County of Madison and State of Illinois, the boundary lines of which are described as follows: Beginning at a point on the South line of a public highway known as Pontoon Road approximately 307 feet East of the North and South center line of said Section Nine (9), which point is the Northeast corner of a rectangular tract of land and presently outside the city limits of Granite City, thence from said beginning point measure Eastward along the South line of Pontoon Road a distance of 216 feet, then Southerly a distance of 253.45 feet to an iron pipe, then Northeastwardly at an angle of 88 degrees 09' to a point which intersects the center line of Stearns Avenue extended, then Southerly along a line which is the center line of Stearns
Avenue extended, a distance of 651.16 feet, then Westwardly with an interior angle of 93 degrees 2' a distance of 849.64 feet to the North-South center line of Section Nine (9), thence Northwardly along said center line a distance of 651.30 feet to an old stone wall, thence Eastwardly with an interior angle of 91 degrees 51' a distance of 307 feet more or less, to the Southeast corner of the rectangular tract situated outside the city limits of Granite City, thence Northwardly a distance of 285 feet or less, to the place of beginning, containing a total of fourteen (14) acres more or less, all as outlined in red on the plat attached hereto and made a part hereof. It is the intent of Petitioner that all of that portion of Petitioner's real estate in the above tract lying within the city limits of Granite City, Illinois be rezoned. Said amendment would change the zoning classification of the real estate immediately above-described from an R-5 District to a C-2 District. This property is also known as Pontoon Road and Maryville Road. First

Plan will curb access to education, citizens contend

Massive opposition to tuition proposals in Master Plan—Phase IV as proposed by the Illinois Board of Higher Education (BHE) was expressed at a public hearing Wednesday in Carbondale, the last of a series of six state-wide sessions held to receive public reaction to the proposed plan.

Oral testimony from nearly 60 persons and written statements from many others were directed at the BHE proposals at a four and one-half hour public hearing Tuesday evening at Belleville Area Community College.

No testimony was given at BAC in favor of the tuition proposals, and other aspects of the master plan were attacked as well.

Students from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville were the most outspoken against the BHE plan.

Robin Roberts, student body president and chairman of the Illinois Association of Student Governments, said "We are disturbed that the Board of Higher Education has taken action which will curtail the Illinois constitution which says, 'A fundamental goal of the people of the state is the educational development of all persons to the limits of their capacities, and the state has the primary responsibility for financing the system of public education.'"

"In fact, we are outraged," Roberts continued.

"I can tell you that Illinois students—and all who truly care about higher education in this state—are not going to accept your proposed tuition increase. We're prepared to fight. We're going to fight you every step of the way from here to the governor's office."

John Harzall of Granite City, SIUE student member of the SIUE Board of Trustees, charged the BHE with conflict of interest in that "three-fifths of the members of the Board of Higher Education were educated in the private sector" and "several members of the Board of Higher Education are members of boards of trustees of private schools."

Harzall said he does not believe the BHE members are as concerned as they should be about low-income workers and families.

Others who spoke at the Belleville hearing included community college presidents, business leaders, State Senator Kenneth Hall of East St. Louis, members of the SIUE faculty and staff and representatives of many community and regional organizations.

Most of the testimony was aimed at the BHE plan to increase undergraduate tuition to a level equating one-third of instructional costs and graduate school tuition to a level one-third higher than undergraduate tuition.

The BHE plan also provides that undergraduate tuition waivers not exceed two percent of the school's "annual full-time equivalent enrollment."

Emil Jason, assistant vice-president for special programs and minority affairs at SIUE and chairman of the SIUE Task Force To Oppose Tuition Increases, said "Increases in tuition will have a serious effect on enrollment at all the universities, but SIUE's student body will be, perhaps, the most seriously affected."

"A limitation on tuition waivers will be felt at the universities, particularly in the athletic programs. But at SIUE the university's commitment to affirmative action will be endangered, for the tuition waiver is the most useful tool we have to introduce the disadvantaged and/or minority population to higher education at the four-year university."

Jason said the Illinois State Scholarship Commission (ISSC) has not provided the answer to the problem: "The tuition waiver has proved to be the most successful means of providing financial help."

Several students from the East St. Louis Center of SIUE and Art Grist, director of the Center, confirmed that they depend heavily on the tuition waiver program rather than financial aid from the ISSC.

The projected effect of the tuition waiver proposal on university athletic programs was cited by Bob Guelker, SIUE athletic director; Rosemarie Archangel, director of women's intercollegiate athletics at SIUE; and several SIUE athletes.

"The effect would be devastating," Guelker said. "The proposal is unthinkable."

Sen. Hall asked, "Are we going to allow the wealthy to determine access to education? He cited the below-average income level of many residents of St. Clair and Madison Counties, particularly the East St. Louis area."

"Fifty per cent of the families of East St. Louis are on some kind of public aid," he said.

"We are not going to allow waiver decreases will close the door to equal educational opportunities for these people."

Representatives of the United Front of East St. Louis and the Urban League of Madison and St. Clair Counties warned that many of the problems of the 1960s could recur if access to education is restricted.

John Flamer, an affirmative action officer at SIUE, urged the BHE to give greater financial support to further "equal educational and employment opportunities" at SIUE.

Pleas for greater support of continuing education programs were made by Dr. Richard Coy, director of advanced educational programs for the School of Dental Medicine at SIUE, and Paul Burns, director of SIUE Off-Campus Programs.

Dr. Stanley Hahn, dean of the School of Dental Medicine, acknowledged the BHE's statement that the number of dentists trained by the school should be advanced to 64 (from the current 48) per year as soon as possible, but he said the BHE must recognize a need for new and modern facilities if the goal is to be met.

Patricia Lynn Perdue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Perdue, 2113 Grand Ave., has been awarded a $1,500 scholarship and $1,400 basic grant to attend Washington University, St. Louis. Miss Perdue will begin her studies in the fall term beginning next September.

SWEET ADELINES PLAIN GUEST NIGHT

Collinsville Sweet Adelines are planning a special guest night Wednesday at their rehearsal hall, the Collinsville Building & Loan. Women interested in singing barbershop harmony are invited to attend the meeting beginning at 7:45 p.m.

In addition to the regular rehearsal, members will hold a "crazy Auction" and entertainment will be provided by a newly-formed group within the chapter. For further information about the Sweet Adelines, Quad-City area, contact Mrs. Jo Beatty, public relations chairman, 931-5436.

TAKE TRUCK TIRES

Eight truck tires and wheels with a total value of about $1,200 were stolen from a trailer at the R&W Service Systems yard, Rural Route Two, West Chain of Rocks Road, Mitchell, it was reported last week. The trailer, parked behind the office, was jacked up and the tires were removed, it was reported.

BREAK INTO AUTOS

Two autos owned by Jerry Eaker, 3813 Village Lane Apartments, were entered and various items were stolen, he reported at 1:30 p.m. Saturday. Two rear deck speakers were removed from a 1969 Buick and a tachometer and stereo speakers were removed from a 1969 Plymouth.

INTRUDER FLEES

Mildred Humphries, 2407 Grand Ave., told police she heard someone upstairs when she returned home at 8:30 p.m. Saturday, but the person had fled when officers arrived. An inventory is being taken to determine if items are missing.

2 ROOMS RANSACKED

The rear door glass was broken to gain entry to the home of Mary Early, 1304 Kirkpatrick Homes, and the living room and one bedroom were ransacked, it was reported at 11:10 p.m. Wednesday. It was not known if anything was stolen.

24 TAPES, CASE STOLEN

Twenty-four tapes in a black case were stolen from a locked auto at the home of William G. St. Clair, 100 Briarhaven Drive, he reported at 4:10 p.m. Friday. An attaché case containing papers, also removed from the auto, later was recovered nearby.

WRECK STOLEN CAR

An auto stolen from the 2700 block of Kirkpatrick Homes before 5:30 a.m. Friday was found at 5:30 a.m. Friday at 4th Street and Meridian Avenue where it was abandoned following a hit and run accident. The car is owned by William Lindsay, St. Louis.

THEFT FROM WRECKER

A 2493 chassis band radio and a $100 radio scanner were stolen from a Dempsey Adams Auto Body wrecker, parked in the 2200 block of Lynch Avenue, it was reported at 6:15 a.m. Friday. A wing vent window was forced open to allow the truck to be entered.

STEAL TELEVISION

A color television was stolen from the home of George Gibson, 2821 rear Cayuga St., it was reported at 12:45 a.m. Friday. Entry was believed gained through an unlocked front door.

STOLEN DOG RETURNS

Mrs. Carrie Ballew, 4403 Kirkpatrick Homes, reported at 6:30 p.m. Saturday that a burglar had entered her apartment while she was away and her black Belgian Shepherd dog was missing. The dog later returned home.

questioning. The would-be robbers walked around the southwest corner of the confessionary after the attempt. No car was heard.

Two elderly Madison residents were robbed in the back of their home at 5-45 p.m. Sunday.

Roy Smothers, 73, of 1631 Fifth St., Madison, and his wife, Mrs. Beulah Smothers, 68, returned home from dinner, parked their car in the car port at the rear of their house and were walking toward the back door when confronted by two young men between 18 and 20 years of age.

One man, about five feet, nine inches tall, with a full afro hair cut, wearing a washed-out, blue denim jacket, blue jeans and holding a .22 caliber pistol, reportedly said, "this is a holdup."

The other man, described as of slender build and weighing about 140 pounds, said, "Give me your purse" and tried to pull the purse away from Mrs. Smothers. He then hit her on the back of the head to make her release the purse.

Items taken from the couple included a man's black wallet containing $20, and personal papers, and a ladies beige colored purse containing personal items and an undetermined amount of money. The robbers reportedly fled southeast through the alley.

The most advanced color TV in the world!

No other color TV offers all these features:

- Precise tuning for precise pictures. It's all done by computer. No fine tuning, no programming—ever!
- Breakthrough in fast, easy tuning. Push-buttons tune you straight to the channel you want. Instantly. Silently. No clunk-clunking through the channels you don't want.
- No mechanical tuners to turn—or wear out. STAR tunes electronically. There are no moving parts.
- One-button Videomatic color tuning. The most complete, most automatic you can buy. Period.
- Adjusts its own picture (brightness, contrast and color) to changes in roomlight. For a great picture in any light.

Pedestal base optional
at extra cost.

Model 4475. Early American in grained Maple finish on wood products
and non-wood material.
Mediterranean styling
also available.

- Channel number appears on screen to show you the channel you've selected. Then it disappears in 3 seconds, and will reappear at your command.
- No chassis tubes to burn out. STAR's modular chassis is 100% solid-state.
- Sharp, bright color pictures from the precision in-line 19-inch (diagonal) picture tube. And they'll stay true to hue. The parts that control purity are permanently bonded into place.
- Extra tested for extra reliability. After the standard industry tests, every STAR must pass 24 hours of extra tests before it leaves the factory. Of all leading solid-state color TV makers, only Magnavox tests every set this thoroughly.
- Digital remote control (included) of all 82 VHF and UHF channels, channel recall, sound, mute and on/off. It's like holding the future in your hand.

STAR™ System

Save 4 ways with Magnavox Videomatic™ Big-Screen Color Television.

1. Save energy. All Magnavox Videomatic TVs have 100% solid-state circuitry, so they use far less energy than conventional TVs.

2. Save your eyes. The American Optometric Association recommends that your TV picture be adjusted to changes in room lighting, not the roomlight to the TV picture. Magnavox Videomatic was the first color TV to do it for you—automatically.

3. Save on servicing. If servicing ever is needed, the Magnavox chassis' plug-in modules can be replaced in minutes, usually in your home. But servicing is less likely to be needed than ever before, thanks to 24 hours of extra testing for extra reliability.

4. Save up to $100! But hurry. Sale is for a limited time only!

Magnavox quality... and

People who love music and fine furniture have made Magnavox the world's leading stereo console. Here's why:

Sound. Today's Magnavox stereo consoles reproduce music with greater fidelity and realism than other comparably priced makes.

- Sealed, air-suspension bass woofers are side-fired

(in specified models) to provide the realistic "surround sound" of the Concert Hall.

- Front-fired tweeters and mid-range speakers complete the system, to bring you superb sound across the entire musical spectrum.

Fine furniture cabinetry in more finishes and styles—to fit your lifestyle—than anybody else.
